1 Chronicles 1

Rendered into E-Prime by Dr. David F. Maas

NASB Copyright 1995 by The Lockman Foundation

E-Prime consists of a paraphrase in which we have endeavored to replace all “to be” verbs (is, are were, was, etc.) with concrete active verbs, eliminating the “is of identity” (instead of “John is a teacher,” we use “John teaches.”), the “is of predication” (instead of “The apple is sweet,” we use “The apple tastes sweet.”), as well as the passive voice and phantom subjects (instead of “Blessed is the man,” we use “God blesses the man.”). By performing these linguistic procedures, we have hoped to create a crisp, direct, and sparkling document.

Genealogy from Adam

1\(^{(A)}\) Adam, Seth, Enosh,

2 Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared,

1(A) These we identify as the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,

2 Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

3(B) The sons of Judah we identify as Er, Onan and Shelah; these three became born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanitess. And Er, Judah's firstborn, did wickedly in the sight of the LORD, so He put him to death.
4(t) Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

5The sons of Perez we identify as Hezron and Hamul.

6The sons of Zerah we identify as Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara; five of them in all.

7The son of Carmi we identify as (D)Achar, the troubler of Israel, who violated the ban.

8The son of Ethan we identify as Azariah.

Genealogy of David

9Now the sons of Hezron, who became born to him we identify as Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.

10Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, leader of the sons of Judah;

11Nahshon became the father of Salma, Salma became the father of Boaz, 12Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse;

13and Jesse became the father of Eliab his firstborn, then Abinadab the second, Shimea the third,

14Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

15Ozem the sixth, David the seventh;

16and their sisters we identify as Zeruiah and Abigail. And the three sons of Zeruiah we identify as Abshai, Joab and Asahel.

17Abigail bore Amasa, and the father of Amasa we identify as Jether the Ishmaelite.

18Now Caleb the son of Hezron had sons by Azubah his wife, and by Jerioth; and these we identify as her sons: Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon.

19When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur.

20Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel.
21Afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he reached sixty years old; and she bore him Segub.

22Segub became the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

23But Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and its villages, even sixty cities. All these we identify as the sons of Machir, the father of Gilead.

24After the death of Hezron in Caleb-ephratnah, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

25Now the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron we identify as Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah.

26Jerahmeel had another wife, who had the name of Atarah; she had a son named Onam.

27The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, we identify as Maaz, Jamin and Eker.

28The sons of Onam we identify as Shammai and Jada. And the sons of Shammai we identify as Nadab and Abishur.

29Abishur's wife had the name Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

30The sons of Nadab we identify as Seled and Appaim, and Seled died without sons.

31Appaim’s son had the name of Ishi. And Ishi had a son named Sheshan. And Sheshan’s son had the name of Ahlai.

32The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai we identify as Jether and Jonathan, and Jether died without sons.

33The sons of Jonathan we identify as Peleth and Zaza. These we identify as the sons of Jerahmeel.

34Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant who had the name of Jarha.

35Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant in marriage, and she bore him Attai.
36 Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad, 37 and Zabad became the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal became the father of Obed,

38 and Obed became the father of Jehu, and Jehu became the father of Azariah, 39 and Azariah became the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah, 40 and Eleasah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum, 41 and Shallum became the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama.

42 Now the sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, we identify as Mesha his firstborn, who we identify as the father of Ziph; and his son had the name of Mareshah, the father of Hebron.

43 The sons of Hebron we identify as Korah and Tappuah and Rekem and Shema.

44 Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam; and Rekem became the father of Shammai.

45 The son of Shammai had the name of Maon, and Maon we identify as the father of Bethzur.

46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza and Gazez; and Haran became the father of Gazez.

47 The sons of Jahdai we identify as Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.

48 Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.

49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena and the father of Gibeon; and the daughter of Caleb we identify as Achsah.
These we identify as the sons of Caleb. The sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, we identify as Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim, Salma the father of Bethlehem and Hareph the father of Beth-gader.

Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim had sons: Haroeh, half of the Manahathites, and the families of Kiriath-jearim: the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites and the Mishraites; from these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

The sons of Salma we identify as Bethlehem and the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites.

The families of scribes who lived at Jabez we identify as the Tirathites, the Shimeathites and the Sucathites. Those we identify as the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

1 Chronicles 3

NASB E-Prime DFM

Family of David

1(A) Now these we identify as the sons of David who became born to him in Hebron: the firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second was Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelitess;

2the third we identify as Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth we identify as Adonijah the son of Haggith;

3the fifth we identify as Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth we identify as Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

4Six began their nativity in Hebron, and (B) there he reigned seven years and six months. And in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

5(C) These became born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and (D) Solomon, four, by (E) Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel;

6and Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet,
7 Nogah, Nepheg and Japhia,
8 Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet, nine.
9 All these we identify as the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar we identify as their sister.
10 Now Solomon's son had the name of Rehoboam, Abijah we identify as his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, 11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son,
12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son,
13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son,
14 Amon his son, Josiah his son.
15 The sons of Josiah we identify Johanan the firstborn, and the second we identify as Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.
16 The sons of Jehoiakim we identify as Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.
17 The sons of Jeconiah, the prisoner, we identify as Shealtiel his son, 18 and Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.
19 The sons of Pedaiah we identify as Zerubbabel and Shimei. And the sons of Zerubbabel we identify as Meshullam and Hananiah, and Shelomith we identify as their sister;
20 and Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah and Jushab-hesed, five.
21 The sons of Hananiah we identify as Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah.
22 The descendants of Shecaniah were Shemaiah, and the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat, six.
23 The sons of Neariah we identify as Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam, three.
24 The sons of Elioenai we identify as Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani, seven.

Line of Hur, Asher

1 The sons of Judah we identify as Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.

2 Reaiah the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath, and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These we identify as the families of the Zorathites.

3 These we identify as the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash; and their sister had the name of Hazzelelponi.

4 Penuel we identify as the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These we identify as the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

5 Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These we identify as the sons of Naarah.

7 The sons of Helah we identify as Zereth, Izhar and Ethnan.

8 Koz became the father of Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

9 Jabez behaved more honorably than his brothers, and his mother named him Jabez saying, "Because I bore him with pain."

10 Now Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, "Oh that You would bless me indeed and enlarge my border, and that Your hand might remain with me, and that You would keep me from harm that it may not pain me!" And God granted him what he requested.

11 Chelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who we identify as the father of Eshton.

12 Eshton became the father of Beth-rapha and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These we identify as the men of Recah.
Now the sons of Kenaz we identify as Othniel and Seraiah. And the sons of Othniel we identify as Hathath and Meonothai.

Meonothai became the father of Ophrah, and Seraiah became the father of Joab the father of Ge-harashim, for they served as craftsmen.

The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh we identify as Iru, Elah and Naam; and Elah had a son named Kenaz.

The sons of Jehallelel we identify as Ziph and Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel.

The sons of Ezrah we identify as Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon. (And these we identify as the sons of Bithia the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took) and she conceived and bore Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

His Jewish wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.

The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, we identify as the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

The sons of Shimon we identify as Amnon and Rinnah, Benhananan and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi we identify as Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

The sons of Shelah the son of Judah we identify as Er the father of Lecah and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers at Beth-ashbea; and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash, Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And the records seem ancient.

These served as the potters and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah; they lived there with the king for his work.

Descendants of Simeon

The sons of Simeon we identify as Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul;

Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son.

The sons of Mishma we identify as Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son.
Now Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many sons, nor did all their family multiply like the sons of Judah.

They lived at Beersheba, Moladah and Hazar-shual, at Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri and Shaaraim. These we identify as their cities until the reign of David.

Their villages we identify as Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan, five cities; and all their villages that surrounded the same cities as far as Baal. These they considered their settlements, and they have their genealogy.

Meshobab and Jamlech and Joshah the son of Amaziah, and Joel and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, and Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah,

Ziza the son of Shippi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaijah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah;

these mentioned by name served as leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

They found rich and good pasture, and (B) the land seemed broad and quiet and peaceful; for those who lived there formerly consisted of Hamites.

These, recorded by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and attacked their tents and the Meunites who lived there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place, because they had pasture there for their flocks.

From them, from the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to (D) Mount Seir, with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders.
43(£) They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

Genealogy from Reuben

1Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for people recognized him as the firstborn, but because (§) he defiled his father's bed, (Ç) his birthright fell to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; so that he does not appear in the genealogy according to the birthright.

2(D) Though Judah prevailed over his brothers, and (E) from him came the leader, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph),

3(£) the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel we identify as Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

4The sons of Joel we identify as Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, (Ç) Shimei his son, 5Micah his son, Reiah his son, Baal his son,

6Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away into exile; he served as leader of the Reubenites.

7His kinsmen by their families, (H) in the genealogy of their generations, included Jeiel the chief, then Zechariah 8and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in (I) Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon.

9To the east he settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, (J) because their cattle had increased in the land of Gilead.

10In the days of Saul (K) they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand, so that they occupied their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead.

11Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of (L) Bashan as far as (M) Salecah.
12Joel served as the chief and Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

13Their kinsmen of their fathers' households we identify as Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber, seven.

14These we identify as the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; 15Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, served as head of their fathers' households.

16They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and in its towns, and in all the pasture lands of (H)Sharon, as far as their borders.

17All of these appeared in the genealogies in the days of (Q)Jotham king of Judah and in the days of (P)Jeroboam king of Israel.

18The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, consisting of valiant men, men who bore shield and sword and shot with bow and proved skillful in battle, numbered 44,760, who (Q)went to war.

19They made war against (R)the Hagrites, (S)Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

20They were helped against them, and the Hagrites and all who lived with them fell into their hand; for (T)they cried out to God in the battle, and He answered their prayers because (U)they trusted in Him.

21They took away their cattle: their 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys; and 100,000 men.

22For many fell slain, because (V)the war emanated from God And (W)they settled in their place until the (X)exile.

23Now the sons of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land; from Bashan to Baal-hermon and (Y)Senir and Mount Hermon they grew numerous.

24These served as the heads of their fathers' households, even Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' households.
25 But they \( ^{([Z]} \) acted treacherously against the God of their fathers and \( ^{(AA)} \) played the harlot \( ^{(AB)} \) after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of \( ^{(AC)} \) Pul, king of Assyria, even the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he \( ^{(AD)} \) carried them away into exile, namely the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

Genealogy: The Priestly Line

1\( ^{(A)} \) The sons of Levi we identify as Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

2 The sons of Kohath we identify as Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

3 The children of Amram we identify as Aaron, Moses and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron we identify as Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

4 Eleazar became the father of Phinehas, and Phinehas became the father of Abishua,

5 and Abishua became the father of Bukki, and Bukki became the father of Uzzi,

6 and Uzzi became the father of Zerahiah, and Zerahiah became the father of Meraioth,

7 Meraioth became the father of Amariah, and Amariah became the father of Ahitub,

8 and \( ^{(B)} \) Ahitub became the father of Zadok, and Zadok \( ^{(C)} \) became the father of Ahimaaz, 9 and Ahimaaz became the father of Azariah, and Azariah became the father of Johanan, and Johanan became the father of Azariah (he served as the priest in the house which Solomon built in Jerusalem), and Azariah became the father of Amariah, and Amariah became the father of Ahitub, and Ahitub became the father of Zadok, and Zadok became the father of Shallum, and Shallum became the father of Hilkiah, and Hilkiah became the father of Azariah, and Azariah became the father of Seraiah, and Seraiah became the father of Jehozadak; and Jehozadak went along when the LORD carried Judah and Jerusalem away into exile by Nebuchadnezzar.

The sons of Levi we identify as Gershom, Kohath and Merari.

These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei.

The sons of Kohath we identify as Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

The sons of Merari we identify as Mahli and Mushi. And these we identify as the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,

Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeatherai his son.

The sons of Kohath we identify as Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son and Assir his son, Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son and Shaul his son.

The sons of Elkanah we identify as Amasai and Ahimoth.

As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah we identify as Zophai his son and Nahath his son, Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

The sons of Samuel we identify as Joel the firstborn, and Abijah the second.

The sons of Merari we identify as Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

Now these David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark rested there.

They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem; and they served in their office according to their order.

These served with their sons: From the sons of the Kohathites we identify as Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

Heman's brother Asaph stood at his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea, the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

On the left hand we identify their kinsmen the sons of Merari: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, 46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, 47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 Their kinsmen the Levites received appointment for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 But Aaron and his sons (M) offered on the altar of burnt offering and (N) on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and (Q) to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50(P) These we identify as the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

54 Now these we identify as their settlements according to their camps within their borders. To the sons of Aaron of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs became the (Q) first lot),

55 to them they gave (R) Hebron in the land of Judah and its pasture lands around it;

56(S) but the fields of the city and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

57(T) To the sons of Aaron they gave the following cities of refuge: Hebron, Libnah also with its pasture lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

58 Hilen with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

59 Ashan with its pasture lands and Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands;

60 and from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its pasture lands, Allemeth with its pasture lands, and Anathoth with its pasture lands. All their cities throughout their families consisted of thirteen cities.

61(U) Then to the rest of the sons of Kohath they gave by lot, from the family of the tribe, from the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.
To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, they received from the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher, the tribe of Naphtali, and the tribe of Manasseh, thirteen cities in Bashan.

To the sons of Merari they gave by lot, according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

So the sons of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their pasture lands.

They gave by lot from the tribe of the sons of Judah, the tribe of the sons of Simeon and the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, these cities which they have mentioned by name.

Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

They gave to them the following cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its pasture lands, Gezer also with its pasture lands,

Jokmeam with its pasture lands, Beth-horon with its pasture lands,

Aijalon with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands;

and from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its pasture lands and Bileam with its pasture lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

To the sons of Gershom they gave, from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands and Ashtaroth with its pasture lands; and from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands and Ramoth with its pasture lands, Anem with its pasture lands;

and from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

Hukok with its pasture lands and Rehob with its pasture lands; and from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, Hammon with its pasture lands and Kiriathaim with its pasture lands.

To the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari, they gave, from the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono with its pasture lands, Tabor with its pasture lands;

and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they gave them, from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its pasture lands, Jahzah with its pasture lands,

Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands;

and from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, Mahanaim with its pasture lands, Heshbon with its pasture lands and Jazer with its pasture lands.

22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,

23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, 24Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah,
25Iphdeiah and Penuel we identify as the sons of Shashak.
26Shamsheira, Shehariah, Athaliah,
27Jareshiah, Elijah and Zichri we identify as the sons of Jeroham.
28These served as heads of the fathers' households according to their generations, chief men who lived in Jerusalem.
29(C) Now in Gibeon, Jeiel, the father of Gibeon lived, and his wife had the name of Maacah; 30and his firstborn son we identify as Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31Gedor, Ahio and Zechar.
32Mikloth became the father of Shimeah. And they also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem opposite their other relatives.

Genealogy from King Saul
33(D) Ner became the father of Kish, and Kish became the father of Saul, and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.
34The son of Jonathan we identify as Merib-baal, and Merib-baal became the father of Micah.
35The sons of Micah we identify as Pithon, Melech, Tarea and Ahaz.
36Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah, and Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza.
37Moza became the father of Binea; Raphah we identify as his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.
38Azel had six sons, and they had the names of: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these we identify as the sons of Azel.
39The sons of Eshek his brother we identify as Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second and Eliphelet the third.
The sons of Ulam we identify as mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons and grandsons, 150 of them. All these we identify as the sons of Benjamin.

People of Jerusalem

1 So all Israel became enrolled by genealogies; and behold, we read them in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And (A)Judah fell into exile to Babylon for their unfaithfulness.

2(B) Now the first who lived in their possessions in their cities consisted of Israel, the priests, the Levites and (C) the temple servants.

3 Some of the sons of Judah, of the sons of Benjamin and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh lived in (D) Jerusalem:

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the sons of Perez the (E) son of Judah.

5 From the Shilonites we identify as Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

6 From the sons of Zerah we identify as Jueel and their relatives, 690 of them.

7 From the sons of Benjamin we identify as Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah,

8 and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibinijah;

9 and their relatives according to their generations, (F) 956. All these served as heads of fathers' households according to their fathers' houses.

10(G) From the priests we identify Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the chief officer of the house of God;

and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; and their relatives, heads of their fathers' households, 1,760 very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

Of the Levites we identify as Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

Bakbakkar, Heresh and Galal and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

Now the gatekeepers we identify as Shallum and Akkube and Talmon and Ahiman and their relatives (Shallum the chief stationed until now at the king's gate to the east). These served as the gatekeepers for the camp of the sons of Levi.

Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives of his father's house, the Korahites, presided over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers had presided over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

Phinehas the son of Eleazar served as ruler over them previously, and the LORD remained with him.

Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah served as gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

All these who they had chosen to serve as gatekeepers at the thresholds numbered 212. These became enrolled by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their office of trust.

So they and their sons had charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, even the house of the tent, as guards.
24 The gatekeepers served on the four sides, to the east, west, north and south.

25 Their relatives in their villages would come in every seven days from time to time to remain with them;

26 for the four chief gatekeepers who served as Levites, served in an office of trust, and served over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God.

27 They spent the night around the house of God, because the watch had become committed to them; and they found themselves in charge of opening it morning by morning.

28 Now some of them had charge of the utensils of service, for they counted them when they brought them in and when they took them out.

29 Some of them also had received appointment over the furniture and over all the utensils of the sanctuary and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices.

30 Some of the sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices.

31 Mattithiah, one of the Levites, Shallum the Korahite’s firstborn, had the responsibility over the things which they baked in pans.

32 Some of their relatives of the sons of the Kohathites presided over the showbread to prepare it every sabbath.

33 Now these we identify as the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the chambers of the temple free from other service; for they engaged themselves in their work day and night.

34 These served as heads of fathers' households of the Levites according to their generations, chief men, who lived in Jerusalem.

Ancestry and Descendants of Saul

35 In Gibeon Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived, and his wife had the name of Maacah, 36 and his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

38Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. And they also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem opposite their other relatives.

39(X)Ner became the father of Kish, and Kish became the father of Saul, and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

40Merib-baal, the son of Jonathan, had a son named Jonathan and a son named Micah.

41The sons of Micah we identify as Pithon, Melech, Tahrea (Y) and Ahaz.

42Ahaz became the father of Jarah, and Jarah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza, 43and Moza became the father of Binea and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44Azel had six sons who had the names: Azrikam, Bocheru and Ishmael and Sheariah and Obadiah and Hanan. These we identify as the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

NASB E-Prime DFM

Defeat and Death of Saul and His Sons

1(A)Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

2The Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, (B) Abinadab and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3The battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and the archers wounded him.

4Then Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and abuse me." But his armor bearer would not, for he felt greatly afraid. (C) Therefore Saul took his sword and fell on it.
5When his armor bearer saw that Saul had died, he likewise fell on his sword and died.

6Thus Saul died with his three sons, and all those of his house died together.

7When all the men of Israel in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

8It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9So they stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

10They put his armor in the house of their gods and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

Jabesh-gilead's Tribute to Saul

11When all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12all the valiant men arose and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of a medium, making inquiry of it, 14and did not inquire of the LORD. Therefore He killed him and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11

NASB E-Prime DFM

David Made King over All Israel

1Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron and said, "Behold, we consider ourselves your bone and your flesh.
2"In times past, even when Saul was king, you led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall serve as prince over My people Israel.'"

3So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD through Samuel.

Jerusalem, Capital City

4Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (namely, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, lived there.

5The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not enter here." Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion (namely, the city of David).

6Now David had said, "Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall become chief and commander." (E) Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

7Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore it received the name the city of David.

8He built the city all around, from the Millo even to the surrounding area; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts dwelled with him.

David's Mighty Men

10Now these serve as the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11These constitute the list of the mighty men whom David had: (J) Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.

12After him came Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who served as one of the three mighty men.
He served with David at Pasdammim when the Philistines gathered together there to battle, and there he found a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled before the Philistines.

They took their stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and struck down the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines camped in the valley of Rephaim.

David remained then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines lay in Bethlehem.

David had a craving and said, "Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which stands by the gate!"

So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which stood by the gate, and took it and brought it to David; nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD;

and he said, "May it stay from me before my God that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

As for Abshai the brother of Joab, he served as chief of the thirty, and he swung his spear against three hundred and killed them; and he had a name as well as the thirty.

Of the three in the second rank he had the most honor and became their commander; however, he did not attain to the first three.

Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, mighty in deeds, struck down the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day.

He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature five cubits tall. Now in the Egyptian's hand he held a spear like a weaver's beam, but he went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.
These things Benai\dash a\dash ah the son of Jehoiada did, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

Behold, he received honor among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three; and David appointed him over his guard.

Now the mighty men of the armies we identify as Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

Shamma\dash to\dash the Harorite, Hele\dash z the Pelonite,

Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abie\dash zer the Anathothite, Sibbi\dash cai the Hushathite, Ila\dash i the Aho\dash hite, Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benai\dash a\dash ah the Pirathonite, Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arba\dash thite, Azmaveth the Bahr\dash umite, Elia\dash ba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliph\dash al the son of Ur, Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

Hezro the Carmelite, Naari\dash rai the son of Ezbai,

Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,

Ze\dash lek the Ammonite, Nah\dash rai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
Hanan the son of Maacah and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

Uzza the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, Jediael the son of Shimri and Joha his brother, the Tizite, Eliel the Mahavite and Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, Eliel and Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobite.

1 Chronicles 12

NASB E-Prime DFM

David's Supporters in Ziklag

1 Now these came to David at Ziklag, while he felt still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they served among the mighty men who helped him in war.

2 They equipped themselves with bows, using both the right hand and the left to sling stones and to shoot arrows from the bow; we knew them as Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin.

3 The chief we identify as Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite,

4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty. Then Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, the Korahites,

7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 From the Gadites there came over to David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear, and whose faces resembled the faces of lions, and (D) they seemed as swift as the gazelles on the mountains.

9Ezer became the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

14These of the sons of Gad became captains of the army; (E) he who seemed least proved equal to a hundred and the greatest to a thousand.

15(F) These we identify as the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it overflowed all its banks and they put to flight all those in the valleys, both to the east and to the west.

16Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.

17David went out to meet them, and said to them, "If you come peacefully to me to help me, my heart shall unite with you; but if to betray me to my adversaries, since I have done no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look on it and decide."

18Then (G) the Spirit came upon (H) Amasai, who served as the chief of the thirty, and he said,

   "We belong to you, O David,
And with you, O son of Jesse!
   (I) Peace, peace to you,
And peace to him who helps you;
Indeed, your God helps you!"

Then David received them and made them captains of the band.

19(J) From Manasseh also some defected to David when he would go to battle with the Philistines against Saul. But they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines after consultation sent him away, saying, "At the cost of our heads he may defect to his master Saul."
20 As he went to Ziklag there defected to him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, captains of thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

21 They helped David against (k) the band of raiders, for they proved all mighty men of valor, and served as captains in the army.

22 For day by day men came to David to help him, until there came a great army (l) like the army of God.

Supporters Gathered at Hebron

23 Now these we count as the numbers of the divisions equipped for war, (m) who came to David at Hebron, (n) to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, (o) according to the word of the LORD.

24 The sons of Judah who bore shield and spear numbered 6,800, equipped for war.

25 Of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for war, 7,100.

26 Of the sons of Levi 4,600.

27 Now Jehoiada served as the leader of the house of Aaron, and with him numbered 3,700, 28 also (p) Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains.

29 Of the sons of Benjamin, (q) Saul's kinsmen, 3,000; for until now (r) the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.

30 Of the sons of Ephraim 20,800, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' households.

31 Of the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000, who received the designation by name to come and make David king.

32 Of the sons of Issachar, (s) men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do, their chiefs added up to two hundred; and all their kinsmen served at their command.

33 Of Zebulun, there numbered 50,000 who went out in the army, who could draw up in battle formation with all kinds of weapons of war and helped David with (t) an undivided heart.
34 Of Naphtali there numbered 1,000 captains, and with them 37,000 with shield and spear.

35 Of the Danites who could draw up in battle formation, there numbered 28,600.

36 Of Asher there numbered 40,000 who went out in the army to draw up in battle formation.

37 From the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, there numbered 120,000 with all kinds of weapons of war for the battle.

38 All these, being men of war who could draw up in battle formation, came to Hebron with a perfect heart to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel had one mind to make David king.

39 They remained there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had prepared for them.

40 Moreover those who remained near to them, even as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and on oxen, great quantities of flour cakes, fig cakes and bunches of raisins, wine, oil, oxen and sheep. There came joy indeed in Israel.

Peril in Transporting the Ark

1 Then David consulted with the captains of the thousands and the hundreds, even with every leader.

2 David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it has come from the LORD our God, let us send everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, also to the priests and Levites who remain with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may meet with us;

3 and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul."
Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people.

So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

David and all Israel went up to Baalah, namely, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD who enthrones Himself above the cherubim, where they call His name.

They carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

David and all Israel celebrated before God with all their might, even with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals and with trumpets.

When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, because the oxen nearly upset it.

The anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, so He struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

Then David became angry because of the LORD'S outburst against Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza to this day.

David felt afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God home to me?"

So David did not take the ark with him to the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

Thus the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and the LORD blessed the family of Obed-edom with all that he had.

David's Family Enlarged

Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons and carpenters, to build a house for him.
2And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom had become highly exalted, for the sake of His people Israel.

3Then David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters.

4These we identify as the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, 5Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

6Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

Philitines Defeated

8When the Philistines heard that the people had anointed David king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

9Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

10David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You give them into my hand?" Then the LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will give them into your hand."

11So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there; and David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters." Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

12They abandoned their gods there; so David gave the order and they burned them with fire.

13The Philistines made yet another raid in the valley.

14David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the balsam trees.

15"It shall come to pass when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."
16David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even as far as Gezer.

17Then the fame of David went out into all the lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him on all the nations.

Plans to Move the Ark to Jerusalem

1Now David built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

2Then David said, "No one will carry the ark of God but the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of God and to minister to Him forever."

3And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place which he had prepared for it.

4David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

5of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his relatives;

6of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and 220 of his relatives;

7of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and 130 of his relatives;

8of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and 200 of his relatives;

9of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and 80 of his relatives;

10of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and 112 of his relatives.

11Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab, 12and said to them, "You represent the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves both you and your relatives, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel (I) to the place that I have prepared for it.

13"(I) Because you did not carry it at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance."

14(K) So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15The sons of (L) the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16Then David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites (M) to appoint their relatives the singers, with instruments of music, harps, lyres, loud-sounding cymbals, to raise sounds of joy.

17So (N) the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah, 18and with them their relatives of the second rank, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

19So the singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan received appointment to sound aloud cymbals of bronze;

20and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah, with harps tuned to (O)alamoth; 21and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel and Azaziah, to lead with lyres tuned to (P)the sheminith.

22Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, took charge of the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he had skill.

23Berechiah and Elkanah served as gatekeepers for the ark.

24Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer, the priests, (Q) blew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also served as gatekeepers for the ark.
25(⍺) So David, with the elders of Israel and the captains over thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from (§) the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26Because God helped the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed (†) seven bulls and seven rams.

27Now David clothed himself with a robe of fine linen with all the Levites who carried the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the singing with the singers. (†) David also wore an ephod of linen.

28Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres.

29It happened when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that (variant) Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

A Tent for the Ark

1And they brought in the ark of God and (†) placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3He distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread and a portion of meat and a raisin cake.

4He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, even to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, with musical instruments, harps, lyres; also Asaph played loud-sounding cymbals, and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests blew trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

Then on that day David (B)first assigned Asaph and his relatives to give thanks to the LORD.

Psalm of Thanksgiving

8(C) Oh give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name;
(D) Make known His deeds among the peoples.

Sing to Him, sing praises to Him;
[a] Speak of all His wonders.

Glory in His holy name;
Let the heart of those who seek the LORD receive gladness.

Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face continually.

Remember His wonderful deeds which He has done,
(G) His marvels and the judgments from His mouth,

O seed of Israel His servant,
Sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

We acknowledge Him as the LORD our God;
(H) His judgments resound in all the earth.

Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded to a thousand generations,

The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac.

He also confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

Saying, "(K)To you I will give the land of Canaan,
As the portion of your inheritance."

When they had only a few in number,
Very few, and strangers in it,

And they wandered about from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people,

He permitted no man to oppress them,
And (M) He reproved kings for their sakes, saying,

"Do not touch My anointed ones,
And (N) do My prophets no harm."

Sing to the LORD, all the earth;
Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.

Tell of His glory among the nations,
His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

For we acknowledge the Lord as (P)great and praiseworthy;
We also fear Him above all gods.
26For the peoples have idols as their gods,
But the LORD made the heavens.
27Splendor and majesty go before Him,
Strength and joy appear in His place.
28Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
29Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come before Him;
Worship the LORD in holy array.
30Tremble before Him, all the earth;
Indeed, the world has become firmly established, it will not move.
31Let the heavens have gladness, and let the earth rejoice;
And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
32Let the sea roar, and all it contains;
Let the field exult, and all that grows in it.
33Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD;
For He comes to judge the earth.
34O give thanks to the LORD, for He displays goodness;
For His lovingkindness extends to everlasting.
35Then say, "Save us, O God of our salvation,
And gather us and deliver us from the nations,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
And glory in Your praise."
36We bless the LORD, the God of Israel,
From everlasting even to everlasting.
Then all the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD.

Worship before the Ark

37So he left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required;

38and Obed-edom with his 68 relatives; Obed-edom, also the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah as gatekeepers.

39He left Zadok the priest and his relatives the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place which stood at Gibeon, 40to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that we read in the law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel.

With them stood (Ali) Heman and Jeduthun, and (Ali) the rest who they chose, who we designate by name, to (AK) give thanks to the LORD, because His lovingkindness extends to everlasting.

And with them stood Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who should sound aloud, and with instruments for (Ali) the songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate.

(AM) Then all the people departed each to his house, and David returned to bless his household.

God's Covenant with David

1(A) And it came about, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD lies under curtains."

2Then Nathan said to David, "Do all in your heart, for God remains with you."

3It came about the same night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4"Go and tell David My servant, 'Thus says the LORD, "(B) You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in;

5for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, (C) but I have gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another.

6"In all places where I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word (D) with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?'"

7"Now, therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to serve as leader over My people Israel.
8"I have dwelled with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name like the name of the great ones who dwell in the earth.

9"I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and they will not move again; and the wicked will not waste them anymore as formerly,

10even from the day that I commanded judges to serve over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I tell you that the LORD will build a house for you.

11"When your days reach fulfillment that you must go to die with your fathers, that I will set up one of your descendants after you, one of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12"He shall build for Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

13"I will behave as his father and he shall behave as My son; and I will not take My lovingkindness away from him, as I took it from him who lived before you.

14"But I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall last forever."

15According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David’s Prayer in Response

16Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD and said, "(E)Who do you consider me, O LORD God, and what do you consider my house that You have brought me this far?

17"This seemed a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the standard of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18"What more can David still say to You concerning the honor bestowed on Your servant? For You know Your servant.

19"O LORD, (H)for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have wrought all this greatness, to make known all these great things.
20"O LORD, we acknowledge none like You, nor do we regard any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21"And what one nation in the earth can compare Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make You a name by great and terrible things, in driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed out of Egypt?

22"For Your people Israel You made Your own people forever, and You, O LORD, became their God.

23"Now, O LORD, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house become established forever, and do as You have spoken.

24"Let us establish Your name and magnify it forever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts we acknowledge as the God of Israel, even a God to Israel; and the house of David Your servant has become established before You.'

25"For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build for him a house; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You.

26"Now, O LORD, We acknowledge You as God, and have promised this good thing to Your servant.

27"And now it has pleased You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, O LORD, have blessed, and it has become blessed forever."

David's Kingdom Strengthened

1Now after this (A)it came about that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

2He defeated Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

3David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his rule to the Euphrates River.
4David took from him 1,000 chariots and 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers, and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for 100 chariots.

5When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 men of the Arameans.

6Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

7David took the shields of gold which the servants of Hadadezer carried and brought them to Jerusalem.

8Also from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze utensils.

9Now when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 10he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had defeated him; for Hadadezer gone to war with Tou. And Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

11King David also dedicated these to the LORD with the silver and the gold which he had carried away from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah defeated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

13Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

14So David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

15(D)Joab the son of Zeruiah commanded the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud served as recorder;

16and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar served as priests, and Shavsha served as secretary;
17 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada presided over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David served as chiefs at the king's side.

David's Messengers Abused

1(A) Now it came about after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son became king in his place.

2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to console him.

3 But the princes of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthow and to spy out the land?"

4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

5 Then certain persons went and told David about the men. And he sent to meet them, for the men felt greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return."

6 When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah and (b) from Zobah.

7 So they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before (c) Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to battle.

8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.
The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come remained by themselves in the field.

Ammon and Aram Defeated

Now when Joab saw that the battle had gone against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel and they arrayed themselves against the Arameans.

But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abshai his brother; and they arrayed themselves against the sons of Ammon.

He said, "If the Arameans have grown too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon have grown too strong for you, then I will help you.

"Remain strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do good in His sight."

So Joab and the people who accompanied him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abshai his brother and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

When the Arameans saw that they suffered defeat at the hands of Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who lived beyond the [8] River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them.

When David heard it, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and drew up in formation against them. And when David drew up in battle array against the Arameans, they fought against him.

The Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed of the Arameans 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and put to death Shophach the commander of the army.

So when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they suffered defeat at the hands Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans did not want to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

War with Philistine Giants

1(A) Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the army and ravaged the land of the sons of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah But David stayed at Jerusalem And (B)Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it.

2(C) David took the crown of their king from his head, and he found it to weigh a talent of gold, and it had a precious stone in it; and David placed it on His head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

3He brought out the people who lived in it, (D)and cut them with saws and with sharp instruments and with axes. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4(E) Now it came about after this, that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and they became subdued.

5And war broke out with the Philistines again, and Elhanan the son of (F)Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the (G)shaft of whose spear resembled a weaver's beam.

6Again war broke out at Gath, where there lived a man of great stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot; and he also had descended from the giants.

7When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

8These had descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Census Brings Pestilence

1 Then Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel.

2 So David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, "(B) Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, and bring me word that I may know their number."

3 Joab said, "(C) May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they actually number! But, my lord the king, do we not recognize them as all my lord's servants? Why does my lord seek this thing? Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore, Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 Joab gave the number of the census of all the people to David. And (D) all Israel added up to 1,100,000 men who drew the sword; and Judah numbered 470,000 men who drew the sword.

6 (E) But he did not number Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's command seemed abhorrent to Joab.

7 God felt displeased with this thing, so He struck Israel.

8 David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. (F) But now, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

9 The LORD spoke to (G) Gad, David's (H) seer, saying,

10 "Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "I offer you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you."'"

11 So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Take for yourself

12 (I) either three years of famine, or three months in which your foes will sweep you away before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now, therefore, consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

13 David said to Gad, "I feel in great distress; please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, (j) for His mercies I consider very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man."

14(k) So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel; 70,000 men of Israel fell.

15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he almost destroyed it, the LORD saw and felt sorry over the calamity, and said to the destroying angel, "Enough; now relax your hand." And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 Then David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, (m) covered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 David said to God, "I commanded them to count the people? Indeed, I have sinned and done very wickedly, (n) but these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, please let Your hand fall against me and my father's household, but not against Your people that they should receive plagues."

David's Altar

18(o) Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.

20 Now Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who lived with him hid themselves. And Ornan threshed wheat.

21 As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself before David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of this threshing floor, that I may build on it an altar to the LORD; for the full price you shall give it to me, that you shall restrain the plague from the people."
23 Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself; and let my lord the king do good in his sight. See, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for wood and the wheat for the grain offering; I will give it all."

24 But King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price; for I will not take what belongs to you for the LORD, or offer a burnt offering which costs me nothing."

25 So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the site.

26 Then David built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called to the LORD and (Q) He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

27 The LORD commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

29(R) For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering stood in the high place at Gibeon at that time.

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he felt terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

David Prepares for Temple Building

1 Then David said, "(A) This we recognize as the house of the LORD God, and this we recognize the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

2 So David gave orders to gather (B) the foreigners who lived in the land of Israel, and (C) he set stonemasons to hew out stones to build the house of God.
3 David prepared large quantities of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than they could weigh;

4 and timbers of cedar logs beyond number, for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought large quantities of cedar timber to David.

5 David said, "My son Solomon I consider young and inexperienced, and the house that he will build for the LORD shall appear exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all lands. Therefore now I will make preparation for it." So David made ample preparations before his death.

Solomon Charged with the Task

6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 David said to Solomon, "My son, I had intended to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.

8 "But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to My name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth before Me.

9 Behold, a son you will have shall prove himself a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for you shall name him Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

10 He shall build a house for My name, and I shall consider him My son and he shall consider him as his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

11 "Now, my son, the LORD remain with you that you may have success, and build the house of the LORD your God just as He has spoken concerning you.

12 Only the LORD give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

13 Then you will prosper, if you take care to observe the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Remain strong and courageous, do not fear nor have dismay.

14 Now behold, with great pains I have prepared for the house of the LORD 100,000 talents of gold and 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weight, for they amass in great quantity; also timber and stone
I have prepared, and you may add to them.

15"Moreover, you have many workmen with you, stoncutters and masons of stone and carpenters, and all men who show skill in every kind of work.

16"Of the gold, the silver and the bronze and the iron you shall not limit.
Arise and work, and may \( ^{(u)} \) the LORD go with you."

17\( ^{(v)} \) David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,

18" Does not the LORD your God accompany you? And \( ^{(w)} \) has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land has become subdued before the LORD and before His people.

19"Now \( ^{(x)} \) set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise, therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, \( ^{(y)} \) so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God into the house that you will build \( ^{(z)} \) for the name of the LORD."

Solomon Reigns

1\( ^{(A)} \) Now when David reached old age, \( ^{(B)} \) he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

2And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.

Offices of the Levites

3\( ^{(C)} \) The Levites he had numbered from thirty years old and upward, and \( ^{(D)} \) their number by census of men had reached 38,000.

4Of these, 24,000 oversaw the work of the house of the LORD; and 6,000 served as \( ^{(P)} \) officers and judges,
5 and 4,000 served as gatekeepers, and 4,000 praised the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise.

6 David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

Gershonites

7 Of the Gershonites we identify Ladan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Ladan we identify as Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei we identify as Shelomoth and Haziel and Haran, three. These served as the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

10 The sons of Shimei we identify as Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah. These four we identify as the sons of Shimei.

11 Jahath we identify as the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one class.

Kohathites

12 The sons of Kohath we count as four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

13(I) The sons of Amram we identify as Aaron and Moses And (J) Aaron became set apart to sanctify him as most holy, he and his sons forever, (K) to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him and to bless in His name forever.

14 But as for (L) Moses the man of God, his sons received names among the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses we identify as Gershom and Eliezer.

16 The son of Gershom we identify as Shebuel the chief.

17 The son of Eliezer we identify as Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah grew to very many.

18 The son of Izhar we identify as Shelomith the chief.

19 The sons of Hebron we identify as Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.
20The sons of Uzziel we identify as Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

Merarites

21The sons of Merari we identify as Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli we identify as Eleazar and Kish.

22Eleazar died and had no sons, but daughters only, so their brothers, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

23The sons of Mushi numbered three: Mahli, Eder and Jeremoth.

Duties Revised

24(M) These we identify as the sons of Levi according to their fathers' households, even the heads of the fathers' households of those of them who they counted, in the number of names by their census, doing the work for the service of the house of the LORD, (N)from twenty years old and upward.

25For David said, "The LORD God of Israel (Q)has given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever.

26"Also, (P)the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service."

27For by the last words of David the sons of Levi had become numbered from twenty years old and upward.

28For their office consisted of assisting the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God, 29(Q) and with the showbread, and (R)the fine flour for a grain offering, and unleavened wafers, or (S)what they baked in the pan or (I)what they had mixed well, and (U)all measures of volume and size.

30They will stand every morning to thank and to praise the LORD, and likewise at evening, 31and to offer all burnt offerings to the LORD, (V)on the sabbaths, the new moons and (W)the fixed festivals in the number set by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD.

32 Thus (A) they would keep charge of the tent of meeting, and charge of the holy place, and (B) charge of the sons of Aaron their relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD.

NASB E-Prime DFM

Divisions of Levites

1 Now the divisions of the descendants of Aaron we identify as the following: (A) the sons of Aaron we identify as Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 (B) But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

3 David, with (C) Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices for their ministry.

4 Since more chief men we found from the descendants of Eleazar than the descendants of Ithamar, they divided them thus: there appeared sixteen heads of fathers' households of the descendants of Eleazar and eight of the descendants of Ithamar, according to their fathers' households.

5 (D) Thus they became divided by lot, the one as the other; for they served as officers of the sanctuary and officers of God, both from the descendants of Eleazar and the descendants of Ithamar.

6 Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, (E) Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaijah,

8 the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,

9 the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,

10 the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for (F) Abijah, the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah, the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab, the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer, the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzez, the nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Jehezkel, the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul, the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-fourth for Maaziah.

These constituted their offices for their ministry when they came in to the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given to them through Aaron their father, just as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Now for the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the first.

Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

The sons (H) of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

Of the sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir.

The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

The sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah, Beno.

The sons of Merari: by Jaaziah consisted of Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

By Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

By Kish: the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel.

The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These we identify as the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households.
31(1) These also cast lots just as their relatives the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, (1) Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites--the head of fathers' households as well as those of his younger brother.

Number and Services of Musicians

1 Moreover, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service some of the sons of (A) Asaph and of Heman and of Jeduthun, who would (B) prophesy with lyres, (C) harps and cymbals; and the number of those who performed their service consisted of:

2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph served under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king.

3(3) Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD.

4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.

5 All these we identify as the sons of Heman (E) the king's seer to exalt him according to the words of God, for God gave fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.

6 All these served under the direction of their father to sing in the house of the LORD, (F) with cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service of the house of God (G) Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman served under the direction of the king.

7 Their number who received training in singing to the LORD, with their [3] relatives, all who demonstrated skill, numbered (H) 288.

Divisions of Musicians
They cast lots for their duties, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the pupil.

Now the first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph, the second for Gedaliah, he with his relatives and sons numbered twelve;

the third to Zaccur, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the fourth to Izri, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the eighth to Jeshiaiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
for the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

for the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his relatives, twelve.

Divisions of the Gatekeepers

1For the divisions of the gatekeepers there numbered among the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 3Elam the fifth, Johanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

4(A) Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, 5Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh and Peullethai the eighth; God had indeed blessed him.

6Also to his son Shemaiah sons became born who ruled over the house of their father, for they proved themselves mighty men of valor.

7The sons of Shemaiah we identify as Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, proved themselves valiant men.

8All these we identify as the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and their relatives proved themselves able men with strength for the service, 62 from Obed-edom.

9Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, 18 valiant men.

10Also (B)Hosah, one of the sons of Merari had sons: Shimri the first (although he had not become born first, his father made him first), 11Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and relatives of Hosah numbered 13.

To these divisions of the gatekeepers, the chief men, received duties like their relatives to minister in the house of the LORD.

They cast lots, the small and the great alike, according to their fathers' households, for every gate.

The lot to the east fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a counselor with insight, and his lot came out to the north.

For Obed-edom it fell to the south, and to his sons went the storehouse.

For Shuppim and Hosah it went to the west, by the gate of Shallecheth, on the ascending highway. Guard corresponded to guard.

On the east there served six Levites, on the north four daily, on the south four daily, and at the storehouse two by two.

At the Parbar on the west there numbered four at the highway and two at the Parbar.

These we identify as the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and of the sons of Merari.

Keepers of the Treasure

The Levites, their relatives, had charge of the treasures of the house of God and of the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, namely, the Jehielites, served as the heads of the fathers' households, belonging to Ladan the Gershonite.

The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, had charge of the treasures of the house of the LORD.

As for the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites, Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, served as officer over the treasures.

His relatives by Eliezer we identify as Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomoth his son.

This Shelomoth and his relatives had charge of all the treasures of the dedicated gifts which King David and the heads of the fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated.

27 They dedicated part of the spoil won in battles to repair the house of the LORD.

28 And all that Samuel the seer had dedicated and Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everyone who had dedicated anything, all of this fell to the care of Shelomoth and his relatives.

Outside Duties

29 As for the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons received the assignment for outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.

30 As for the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, had charge of the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

31 As for the Hebronites, Jerijah the chief (these Hebronites had undergone investigations according to their genealogies and fathers' households, in the fortieth year of David's reign, and men of outstanding capability they found among them at Jazer of Gilead)

32 and his relatives, capable men, numbered 2,700 , heads of fathers' households. And King David made them overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites concerning all the affairs of God and of the king.

Commanders of the Army

1 Now this we calculate as the enumeration of the sons of Israel, the heads of fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all the affairs of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division numbering 24,000:

2 Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel had charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division numbered 24,000.
He was from the sons of Perez, and served as chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

Dodai the Aholite and his division had charge of the division for the second month, Mikloth being the chief officer; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The Benaiah, the son of Jehoida the priest served as third commander of the army for the third month, as chief; and in his division numbered 24,000.

This Benaiah proved himself the mighty man of the thirty, and had charge of thirty; and over his division served Ammizabad his son.

The fourth for the fourth month we identify as Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The fifth for the fifth month we identified as the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The sixth for the sixth month we identify as Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The seventh for the seventh month we identify as Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The eighth for the eighth month we identify as Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The ninth for the ninth month we identify as Abiezer the Anathothite of the Benjamites; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The tenth for the tenth month we identify as Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The eleventh for the eleventh month we identified as Benaiah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division numbered 24,000.

The twelfth for the twelfth month we identify as Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division numbered 24,000.

Chief Officers of the Tribes

Now in charge of the tribes of Israel: chief officer for the Reubenites we identify as Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;
17 for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok;

18 for Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

19 for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

20 for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

21 for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

22 for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. (E) These we identify as the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, (C) because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel (D) as the stars of heaven.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah had begun to count them, but did not finish; and because of (E) this, wrath came upon Israel, and the number they did not include in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Various Overseers

25 Now Azmaveth the son of Adiel had charge of the king's storehouses. And Jonathan the son of Uzziah had charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages and in the towers.

26 Ezri the son of Chelub had charge of the agricultural workers who tilled the soil.

27 Shimei the Ramathite had charge of the vineyards; and Zabdi the Shiphmite had charge of the produce of the vineyards stored in the wine cellars.

28 Baal-hanan the Gederite had charge of the olive and (F) sycamore trees in the (B) Shephelah; and Joash had charge of the stores of oil.

29 Shitrai the Sharonite had charge of the cattle which grazed in (G) Sharon; and Shaphat the son of Adlai had charge of the cattle in the valleys.

30 Obil the Ishmaelite had charge of the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite had charge of the donkeys.
31 Jaziz the (H) Hagrite had charge of the flocks. All these served as overseers of the property which belonged to King David.

Counselors

32 Also Jonathan, David's uncle, served as a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.

33(I) Ahithophel served as counselor to the king; and (J) Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.

34 Jehoiada the son of (K) Benaiah, and (L) Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel; and Joab served as the (M) commander of the king's army.

David's Address about the Temple

1 Now (A) David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with the officials and (B) the mighty men, even all the valiant men.

2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brethren and my people; I (C) had [a] intended to build a (D) permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and for (E) the footstool of our God. So I had made preparations to build it.

3 "But God said to me, '(E) You shall not build a house for My name because you have proved yourself a man of war and have shed blood.'

4 "Yet, the LORD, the God of Israel, (E) chose me from all the house of my father to serve as king over Israel (G) forever For (H) He has chosen Judah to lead; and (I) in the house of Judah, my father's house, and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel.

5 "(I) Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), (K) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.
6"He said to me, 'Your son (L)Solomon shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him as a son to Me, and I will serve as a father to him.

7'I will establish his kingdom forever (M)if he resolutely performs My commandments and My ordinances, as has happened now.'

8"So now, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God so that you may possess the good land and bequeath it to your sons after you forever.

9"As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and (N)serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind; (O)for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts (P)If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.

10"Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; show courage and act."

11Then David gave to his son Solomon (R)the plan of (S)the porch of the temple, its buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms and (T)the room for the mercy seat;

12and the plan of all that he had in mind, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for (U)the storehouses of the house of God and for the storehouses of the dedicated things;

13also for (V)the divisions of the priests and (W)the Levites and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD and for all the utensils of service in the house of the LORD;

14for the golden utensils, the weight of gold for all utensils for every kind of service; for the silver utensils, the weight of silver for all utensils for every kind of service;

15and the weight of gold for the (X)golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

16and the gold by weight for the tables of showbread, for each table; and silver for the silver tables; 17 and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold; and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

18 and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot, even the cherubim that spread out their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 "All this," said David, "the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the details of this pattern."

20 Then David said to his son Solomon, "Remain strong and courageous, and act; do not fear nor feel dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, remains with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD has become finished.

21 "Now behold, there we identify as the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and every willing man of any skill will remain with you in all the work for all kinds of service. The officials also and all the people will remain entirely at your command."

Offerings for the Temple

1 Then King David said to the entire assembly, "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, remains still young and inexperienced and the work appears great; for the temple we build not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 "Now with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the brass for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, onyx stones and inlaid stones, stones of antimony and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones and alabaster in abundance.

3 "Moreover, in my delight in the house of my God, the treasure I have of gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, over and above all that I have already provided for the holy temple,
4namely, (D)3,000 talents of gold, of (E)the gold of Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;

5of gold for the things of gold and of silver for the things of silver, namely, for all the work done by the craftsmen. Who then has willingness to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?"

6Then (E)the rulers of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with (G)the overseers over the king's work, offered willingly;

7and for the service for the house of God they gave 5,000 talents and 10,000 (H)darics of gold, and 10,000 talents of silver, and 18,000 talents of brass, and 100,000 talents of iron.

8Whoever possessed precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in care of (J)Jehiel the Gershonite.

9Then the people rejoiced because they had offered so willingly, for they made their offering to the LORD (J)with a whole heart, and King David also rejoiced greatly.

David's Prayer

10So David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly; and David said, "We Bless You, O LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever.

11n(K)Yours, O LORD, we acknowledge as the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, indeed everything that exists in the heavens and the earth; the dominion belongs to You, O LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head over all.

12n(L)Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all, and (M)in Your hand resides power and might; and it lies in Your hand to make great and to strengthen everyone.

13"Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious name.

14"But who do you consider me and who comprise my people that we should have the ability to offer as generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your hand we have given You.

15nFor (O)we live as sojourners before You, and tenants, as all our fathers were; (Q)our days on the earth resemble a shadow, and we see no hope.
16"O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build You a house for Your holy name, it comes from Your hand, and all belongs to You.

17"Since I know, O my God, that (P)You try the heart and (Q)delight in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these things; so now with joy I have seen Your people, who stand presently here, make their offerings willingly to You.

18"O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, our fathers, preserve this forever in the intentions of the heart of Your people, and direct their heart to You;

19 and (B)give to my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies and Your statutes, and to do them all, and (A)to build the temple, for which I have made provision."

20Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." And (Y)all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and (U)bowed low and did homage to the LORD and to the king.

Sacrifices

21On the next day (V)they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD, 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22So they ate and drank that day before the LORD with great gladness.

Solomon Again Made King

And they made Solomon the son of David king (W) a second time, and they (X) anointed him as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as priest.

23Then (Y)Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

24All the officials, the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David pledged allegiance to King Solomon.

25(Z)The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and (AA)bestowed on him royal majesty which they had not seen on any king before him in Israel.

26Now (AB)David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.
27(AC) The period which he reigned over Israel reached forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

Death of David

28 Then he died in (AD) a ripe old age, (AE) full of days, riches and honor; and his son Solomon reigned in his place.

29 Now the acts of King David, from first to last, we read in the chronicles of (AF) Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of (AG) Nathan the prophet and in the chronicles of (AH) Gad the seer, 30 with all his reign, his power, and the circumstances which came on him, on Israel, and on all the kingdoms of the lands.

Solomon Worships at Gibeon

1 Now (A) Solomon the son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God remained with him and (B) exalted him greatly.

2 Solomon spoke to all Israel, (C) to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households.

3 Then Solomon and all the assembly with him went to (D) the high place which stood at Gibeon, (E) for God's tent of meeting stood there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 However, David had brought up (F) the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to (G) the place he had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

5 Now (H) the bronze altar, which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, stood there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.
6 Solomon went up there before the LORD to the bronze altar which stood at the tent of meeting, and (I) offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 (J) In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."

Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom

8 Solomon said to God, "You have dealt with my father David with great lovingkindness, and (K) have made me king in his place.

9 "Now, O LORD God, (L) Your promise to my father David has become fulfilled, for You have made me king over (M) a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

10 (N) Give me now wisdom and knowledge, (O) that I may go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this great people of Yours?"

11 (P) God said to Solomon, "Because you had this in mind, and did not ask for riches, wealth or honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you may rule My people over whom I have made you king,

12 wisdom and knowledge I have granted to you. And (Q) I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings who lived before you has possessed nor those who will come after you."

13 (R) So Solomon went from the high place which stood at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.

Solomon's Wealth

14 (S) Solomon amassed chariots and horsemen (T) He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in (U) the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 (V) The king made (W) silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.

16 Solomon imported his (X) horses from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders procured them from Kue for a price.

17 They imported chariots from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver apiece and horses for 150 apiece, and by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Solomon Will Build a Temple and Palace

1\(^{(A)}\) Now Solomon decided to build a house for the name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

2So \(^{(B)}\) Solomon assigned 70,000 men to carry loads and 80,000 men to quarry stone in the mountains and 3,600 to supervise them.

3\(^{(C)}\) Then Solomon sent word to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, "\(^{(D)}\) As you dealt with David my father and sent him cedars to build him a house to dwell in, so do for me.

4"Behold, I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, dedicating it to Him, \(^{(E)}\) to burn fragrant incense before Him and to set out \(^{(F)}\) the showbread continually, and to offer \(^{(G)}\) burnt offerings morning and evening, \(^{(H)}\) on sabbaths and on new moons and on the appointed feasts of the LORD our God, this we require forever in Israel.

5"The house which I intend to build will have greatness, for \(^{(I)}\) greater do we regard our God than all the gods.

6"But \(^{(J)}\) who can build a house for Him, for the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him? So who do you consider me, that I should build a house for Him, except to \(^{(K)}\) burn incense before Him?

7"Now \(^{(K)}\) send me a skilled man to work in gold, silver, brass and iron, and in purple, crimson and violet fabrics, and who knows how to make engravings, to work with the skilled men \(^{(L)}\) whom I have in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

8\(^{(M)}\) Send me also cedar, cypress and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber of Lebanon; and indeed \(^{(N)}\) my servants will work with your servants, 9to prepare timber in abundance for me, for the house which I intend to build will have greatness and wonder.

10"Now behold, (Q)I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, 20,000 [B]kors of crushed wheat and 20,000 kors of barley, and 20,000 baths of wine and 20,000 baths of oil."

Huram to Assist

11Then Huram, king of Tyre, answered in a letter sent to Solomon: "(P)Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them."

12Then Huram continued, "We bless (Q)the LORD, the God of Israel, who has made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, (B)who will build a house for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

13"Now I send Huram-abi, a skilled man, endowed with understanding, 14(S)the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father, who knows how to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone and wood, and in purple, violet, linen and crimson fabrics, and who knows how to make all kinds of engravings and to execute any design which he may receive to work on, to work with your skilled men and with those of my lord David your father.

15"Now then, let my lord send to his servants wheat and barley, oil and wine, of (T)which he has spoken.

16(W)We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may carry it up to Jerusalem."

17Solomon numbered all the aliens who lived in the land of Israel, (Y)following the census which his father David had taken; and 153,600 they found.

18(W)He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads and 80,000 to quarry stones in the mountains and 3,600 supervisors to make the people work.

The Temple Construction in Jerusalem

1(A) Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared (B) on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2He began to build on the second day in the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

Dimensions and Materials of the Temple

3Now these measure the foundations which (C) Solomon laid for building the house of God. The length in [a] cubits, according to the old standard measured sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

4The porch which stood in front of the house appeared as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits, and the height 120; and inside he overlaid it with pure gold.

5He overlaid (E) the main room with cypress wood and overlaid it with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains.

6Further, he adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold came from Parvaim.

7(F) He also overlaid the house with gold--the beams, the thresholds and its walls and its doors; and he (G) carved cherubim on the walls.

8Now he made (H) the room of the holy of holies: its length across the width of the house measured twenty cubits, and its width measured twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to 600 talents.

9The weight of the nails measured fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid (I) the upper rooms with gold.

10(Q) Then he made two sculptured cherubim in the room of the holy of holies and overlaid them with gold.
The wingspan of the cherubim measured twenty cubits; the wing of one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

The wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and its other wing of five cubits connected to the wing of the first cherub.

The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet facing the main room.

He made the veil of violet, purple, crimson and fine linen, and he worked cherubim on it.

He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each measured five cubits.

He made chains in the inner sanctuary and placed them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates and placed them on the chains.

He erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4

Furnishings of the Temple

Then he made a bronze altar, twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width and ten cubits in height.

Also he made the cast metal sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height measured five cubits and its circumference thirty cubits.

Now figures like oxen appeared under it and all around it, ten cubits, entirely encircling the sea. The oxen appeared in two rows, cast in one piece.
4 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing the north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east; and the sea they set on top of them and all their hindquarters turned inwards.

5 It measured a handbreadth thick, and its brim they made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom; it could hold 3,000 baths.

6 He also made ten basins in which to wash, and he set five on the right side and five on the left to rinse things for the burnt offering; but the sea they made for the priests to wash in.

7 Then he made the ten golden lampstands in the way prescribed for them and he set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred golden bowls.

9 Then he made the court of the priests and the great court and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze.

10 He set the sea on the right side of the house toward the southeast.

11 Huram also made the pails, the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of God:

12 the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals stood on top of the pillars,

13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals which stood on the pillars.

14 He also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands,

15 and the one sea with the twelve oxen under it.

16 The pails, the shovels, the forks and all its utensils, Huram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

17 On the plain of the Jordan the king cast them in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.
18(\textsuperscript{N}) Thus Solomon made all these utensils in great quantities, for the weight of the bronze they could not find out.

19Solomon also made all the things that stood in the house of God: even the golden altar, (\textsuperscript{Q}) the tables with the bread of the Presence on them,

20the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, (\textsuperscript{P}) to burn in front of the inner sanctuary in the way prescribed;

21the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of purest gold;

22and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons and the firepans of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the holy of holies and the doors of the house, namely, of the nave, of gold.

\textbf{They Bring the Ark into the Temple}

1(\textsuperscript{A}) Thus all the work that Solomon performed for the house of the LORD had come to a conclusion And Solomon brought in the (\textsuperscript{B}) things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver and the gold and all the utensils, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

2(\textsuperscript{C}) Then Solomon assembled to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, (\textsuperscript{D}) to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which we call Zion.

3(\textsuperscript{E}) All the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at (\textsuperscript{E}) the feast, that we mark in the seventh month.

4Then all the elders of Israel came, and (\textsuperscript{G}) the Levites took up the ark.

5They brought up the ark and the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils which stood in the tent; the Levitical priests brought them up.
6And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who assembled with him before the ark, sacrificed so many sheep and oxen that they could not count or number.

7Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubim.

8For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles.

9The poles appeared so long that the ends of the poles of the ark people could see in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not see them outside; and they stand here to this day.

10They placed nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

The Glory of God Fills the Temple

11When the priests came forth from the holy place (for all the priests who presented themselves had sanctified themselves, without regard to divisions),

12and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and kinsmen, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps and lyres, standing east of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets

13in unison when the trumpeters and the singers would prepare to make themselves heard with one voice to praise and to glorify the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice accompanied by trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD saying, "We acknowledge Him as good for His lovingkindness lasts forever," then the house, the house of the LORD filled with a cloud, 14so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

Solomon's Dedication

1(Δ) Then Solomon said,
   "The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.
2"I have built You a lofty house,
   And a place for Your dwelling forever."

3Then the king faced about and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

4He said, " We blessed the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled it with His hands, saying,

5Since the day that I brought My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house that My name they might place there, nor did I choose any man for a leader over My people Israel;

6but (B)I have chosen Jerusalem that My name might remain there, and I (C)have chosen David to rule over My people Israel.'

7(Δ)Now it emanated from the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

8"But the LORD said to my father David, 'Because it emanated from your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it emanated from your heart.

9'Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son shall build the house for My name.'

10"Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in the place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

11"There I have set the ark (Δ)in which dwells the covenant of the LORD, which He made with the sons of Israel."
Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

12 Then he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

13 Now Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.

14 He said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, we recognize no god like You in heaven or on earth, keeping covenant and showing lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

15 who has kept with Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him; indeed You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it has become this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him, saying, "You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in My law as you have walked before Me.'

17 Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, let Your word become confirmed which You have spoken to Your servant David.

18 But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built.

19 Yet have regard to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You;

20 that Your eye may open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have said that You would put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

21 Listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place; hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; hear and forgive.

22 If a man sins against his neighbor and needs to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house,
23 then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, (Q) punishing the wicked by bringing his way on his own head and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

24"If Your people Israel suffer defeat before an enemy because (R) they have sinned against You, and they return to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house, 25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You have given to them and to their fathers.

26"When we find the (S) heavens shut up and we have no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them;

27 then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, indeed, (T) teach them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

28"If a (U) famine occurs in the land, if pestilence occurs, if blight occurs or mildew, if locust or grasshopper occur, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or whatever sickness occurs,

29 whatever prayer or supplication comes from any man or by all Your people Israel, each knowing his own affliction and his own pain, and spreading his hands toward this house,

30 then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know (V) for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men, 31 that they may (W) fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

32"Also concerning (W) the foreigner who does not belong to Your people Israel, when he comes from a far country for Your great name's sake and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house, 33 then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and (W) fear You as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built we call by Your name.

"When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You shall send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name, then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

When they sin against You (for no man lives who does not sin) and You have anger with them and deliver them to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far off or near, if they take thought in the land where they fall captive, and repent and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, we have committed iniquity and have acted wickedly';

if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have fallen captive, and pray toward their land which You have given to their fathers and the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name, then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and supplications, and maintain their cause and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

Now, O my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and Your ears become attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

Now therefore arise, O LORD God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your might; let Your priests, O LORD God, become clothed with salvation and let Your godly ones rejoice in good.

"O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember Your lovingkindness to Your servant David."

2 Chronicles 7

NASB E-Prime DFM

The Shekinah Glory

Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the house.
The priests could not enter into the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD'S house.

All the sons of Israel, seeing the fire come down and the glory of the LORD upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave praise to the LORD, saying, "Truly He demonstrates goodness, truly His lovingkindness lasts forever."

Sacrifices Offered

Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

The priests stood at their posts, and the Levites also, with the instruments of music to the LORD, which King David had made for giving praise to the LORD--"for His lovingkindness lasts forever"--whenever he gave praise by their means, while the priests on the other side blew trumpets; and all Israel stood.

Then Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that stood before the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar which Solomon had made could not contain the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat.

The Feast of Dedication

So Solomon observed the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly who came from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt.

On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for the dedication of the altar they observed seven days and the feast seven days.

Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy of heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to His people Israel.

God's Promise and Warning

Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and successfully completed all that he had planned on doing in the house of the LORD and in his palace.
12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up the heavens so that it does not rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, 14 and My people who want to take My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

15 Now My eyes will open and My ears attend to the prayer offered in this place.

16 For now I have chosen and consecrated this house that My name may remain there forever, and My eyes and My heart will remain there perpetually.

17 As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, even to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My ordinances,

18 then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David, saying, 'You shall not lack a man to rule in Israel.'

19 But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, 20 then I will uproot you from My land which I have given you, and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

21 As for this house, which received exaltation, everyone who passes by it will feel astonished and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

22 And they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers who brought them from the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity on them.'

Solomon's Activities and Accomplishments

1(A) Now it came about at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house

2that he built the cities which Huram had given to him, and settled the sons of Israel there.

3Then Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and captured it.

4He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities which he had built in Hamath.

5He also built upper (B)Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, (C)fortified cities with walls, gates and bars;

6and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen, and all that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

7(D) All of the people who remained of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who did not belong to Israel, 8namely, from their descendants who remained after them in the land whom the sons of Israel had not destroyed, (E)them Solomon raised as forced laborers to this day.

9But Solomon did not make slaves for his work from the sons of Israel; they served as men of war, his chief captains and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

10These serves as the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty who ruled over the people.

11(F)Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places we regard as holy where the ark of the LORD has entered."
12Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the porch;

13and did so according to the daily rule, offering them up according to the commandment of Moses, for the sabbaths, the new moons and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths.

14Now according to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering before the priests according to the daily rule, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for David the man of God had so commanded.

15And they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any manner or concerning the storehouses.

16Thus all the work of Solomon they carried out from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it became completed. So the house of the LORD reached completion.

17Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the seashore in the land of Edom.

18And Huram by his servants sent him ships and servants who knew the sea; and they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9

NASB E-Prime DFM

Visit of the Queen of Sheba

1Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with difficult questions. She had a very large retinue, with camels carrying spices and a large amount of gold and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that resided in her heart.

2Solomon answered all her questions; and Solomon hid nothing from her which he did not explain to her.
When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house which he had built, the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she grew breathless.

Then she said to the king, "It appears a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

Nevertheless I did not believe their reports until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom I did not hear about. You surpass the report that I heard.

How blessed do I consider your men, how blessed do I consider your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom.

We bless the LORD your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; because your God loved Israel establishing them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold and a very great amount of spices and precious stones; they never had spice like that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

The servants of Huram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum trees and precious stones.

From the algum trees the king made steps for the house of the LORD and for the king's palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; and none like that ever appeared before in the land of Judah.

King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she requested besides a return for what she had brought to the king. Then she turned and went to her own land with her servants.

Solomon's Wealth and Power

Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year exceeded 666 talents of gold, besides that which the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, using 600 shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

16He made 300 shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield, and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

18The throne and footstool had six steps in gold attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.

19Twelve lions stood there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; no one made anything like it for any other kingdom.

20All King Solomon's drinking vessels consisted of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon consisted of pure gold; silver did not have value in the days of Solomon.

21(G)For the king had ships which went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

22(H)So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

24(I)They brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

25Now Solomon had (I)4,000 stalls for horses and chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

26(K)He served as the ruler over all the kings from the Euphrates River even to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

27(L)The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that grow in the lowland.

28(M)And they brought horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

Rehoboam's Reign of Folly

1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he lived in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

3 So they sent and summoned him. When Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

5 He said to them, "Return to me again in three days." So the people departed.

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you counsel me to answer this people?"
7 They spoke to him, saying, "If you will show kindness to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will serve you forever."

8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him.

9 So he said to them, "What counsel do you give that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

10 The young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us.' Thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger shall seem thicker than my father's loins!"

11 Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had directed, saying, "Return to me on the third day."

13 The king answered them harshly, and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the elders.

14 He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

15 So the king did not listen to the people, for it served a turn of events from God that the LORD might establish His word, which He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them the people answered the king, saying,

"(J) What portion do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse Every man to your tents, O Israel; Now look after your own house, David"

(J) So all Israel departed to their tents.

17 But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who presided over the forced labor, and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

So Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11

NASB E-Prime DFM

Rehoboam Reigns over Judah and Builds Cities

1 Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who served as warriors, to fight against Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 "Thus says the LORD, "You shall not go up or fight against your relatives; return every man to his house, for this thing came from Me."

So they listened to the words of the LORD and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities for defense in Judah.

6 Thus he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

7 Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam,

8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

10 Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron, which he built as fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin.

11 He also strengthened the fortresses and put officers in them and stores of food, oil and wine.
He put shields and spears in every city and strengthened them greatly. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

Moreover, the priests and the Levites who lived in all Israel stood with him from all their districts.

Jeroboam Appoints False Priests

For the Levites left their pasture lands and their property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

He set up priests of his own for the high places, for the satyrs and for the calves which he had made.

Those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

Rehoboam's Family

Then Rehoboam took as a wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse, and she bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines. For he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as head and leader among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.

He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons through all the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities, and he gave them food in abundance. And he sought many wives for them.
2 Chronicles 12

NASB E-Prime DFM

Shishak of Egypt Invades Judah

1(A) When the kingdom of Rehoboam became established and strong, (B) he and all Israel with him forsook the law of the LORD.

2(C) And it came about in King Rehoboam's fifth year, because they had proved unfaithful to the LORD, that (D) Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

3 with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. And the people who came with him from Egypt appeared without number: (E) the Lubim, the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.

4 He captured (F) the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

5 Then (G) Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, (H) You have forsaken Me, so I also have forsaken you to Shishak."

6 So the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The (I) LORD has righteousness."

7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "(J) They have humbled themselves so I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some measure of deliverance, and (K) My wrath shall not pour out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak.

8 "But they will become his slaves so (L) that they may learn the difference between My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

Plunder Impoverishes Judah

9(M) So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's palace. He took everything; (N) he even took the golden shields which Solomon had made.
10 Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and committed them to the care of the commanders of the guard who guarded the door of the king's house.

11 As often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards came and carried them and then brought them back into the guards' room.

12 And when he humbled himself, the anger of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and also conditions remained good in Judah.

13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam reached forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother had the name of Naamah the Ammonitess.

14 He did evil because he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, have we not read them in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? And wars erupted between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David; and his son Abijah became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 13

NASB E-Prime DFM

Abijah Succeeds Rehoboam

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother had the name of Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Now there erupted war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant warriors, 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 chosen men who served as valiant warriors.

Civil War

Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which lies in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the rule over Israel forever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?

Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master, and worthless men gathered about him, scoundrels, who proved too strong for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when young and timid and could not hold his own against them.

So now you intend to resist the kingdom of the LORD through the sons of David, consisting a great multitude and having with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made for gods for you.

Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of no gods.

But as for us, we acknowledge the LORD as our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the sons of Aaron minister to the LORD as priests, and the Levites attend to their work.

Every morning and evening they burn to the LORD burnt offerings and fragrant incense, and the showbread stands on the clean table, and the golden lampstand with its lamps ready to light every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.

Now behold, God is with us at our head and His priests with the signal trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.

But Jeroboam had set an ambush to come from the rear, so that Israel was in front of Judah and the ambush remained behind them.
14 When Judah turned around, behold, they suffered attack from both front and rear; so they cried to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah raised a war cry, and when the men of Judah raised the war cry, then God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 When the sons of Israel fled before Judah, God gave them into their hand.

17 Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, so that 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain.

18 Thus the sons of Israel fell under subjugation at that time, and the sons of Judah conquered because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their fathers.

19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured from him several cities, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron with its villages.

Death of Jeroboam

20 Jeroboam did not again recover strength in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him and he died.

21 But Abijah became powerful; and took fourteen wives to himself, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his words we read in the treatise of the prophet Iddo.

Asa Succeeds Abijah in Judah

1(A) So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and his son Asa became king in his place. The land remained undisturbed for ten years during his days.
2 Asa did good and right in the sight of the LORD his God,

3 for he removed the foreign altars and high places, tore down the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherim,

4 and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers and to observe the law and the commandment.

5 He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. And the kingdom continued undisturbed under him.

6 He built fortified cities in Judah, since the land remained undisturbed, and no one warred with him during those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

7 For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land still belongs to us because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

8 Now Asa had an army of 300,000 from Judah, bearing large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, bearing shields and wielding bows; all of them proved themselves valiant warriors.

9 Now Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and 300 chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

10 So Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, "LORD, there exists no one besides You to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O LORD our God, for we trust in You, and in Your name have come against this multitude. O LORD, we acknowledge You as our God; let not man prevail against You."

12 So the LORD routed the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 Asa and the people who accompanied him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that they could not recover, for they were shattered before the LORD and before His army. And they carried away very much plunder.
14 They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, (F) for the dread of the LORD had fallen on them; and they despoiled all the cities, for they found much plunder in them.

15 They also struck down those who owned livestock, and they carried away large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

The Prophet Azariah Warns Asa

1 Now (A) the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded,

2 and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: (B) the LORD remains with you when you remain with Him And (C) if you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

3 (D) For many days Israel didn’t have the true God and without (E) a teaching priest and without law.

4 "But (F) in their distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He let them find Him.

5 (F) In those times no peace came to him who went out or to him who came in, for many disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

6 (H) Nation became crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress.

7 "But you, remain strong and do not lose courage, for there remains a (I) reward for your work."

Asa’s Reforms

8 Now when Asa heard these words and the prophecy which Azariah the son of Oded the prophet spoke, he took courage and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from (K) the cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim \(^{1}\). He then restored the altar of the LORD which stood in front of the porch of the LORD.

\(^9\)He gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon \(^{m}\) who resided with them, for many defected to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God remained with him.

\(^{10}\)So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

\(^{11}(N)\)They sacrificed to the LORD that day 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep from the spoil they had brought.

\(^{12}(Q)\)They entered into the covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

\(^{13}\)and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel \(^{P}\) should receive the death penalty, whether small or great, man or woman.

\(^{14}\)Moreover, they made an oath to the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets and with horns.

\(^{15}\)All Judah rejoiced concerning the oath, for they had sworn with their whole heart and had sought Him earnestly, and He let them find Him. So \(^{Q}\) the LORD gave them rest on every side.

\(^{16}(B)\)He also removed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from the position of queen mother, because she had made a horrid image as \(^{S}\) an Asherah, and \(^{T}\) Asa cut down her horrid image, crushed it and burned it at the brook Kidron.

\(^{17}\)But the high places he did not remove from Israel; nevertheless Asa's heart remained blameless all his days.

\(^{18}\)He brought into the house of God the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver and gold and utensils.

\(^{19}\)And there erupted no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

Asa Wars against Baasha

1In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign (A) Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

2Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

3"Let us have a treaty between you and me, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

4So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim and all (B) the store cities of Naphtali.

5When Baasha heard of it, he ceased fortifying Ramah and stopped his work.

6Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built, and with them he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

Asa Imprisons the Prophet

7At that time (C) Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "(D) Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand.

8"Did you not consider (E) the Ethiopians and the Lubim (F) an immense army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet (G) because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.

9"For (H) the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those (I) whose heart belongs totally to Him. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will surely have wars."
Then Asa became angry with the seer and put him in prison, for he became enraged at him for this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

Now, the acts of Asa from first to last, behold, we read about them in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa became diseased in his feet. His disease became severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

So Asa slept with his fathers, having died in the forty-first year of his reign.

They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and they laid him in the resting place which he had filled with spices of various kinds blended by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire for him.

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa

Jehoshaphat his son then became king in his place, and made his position over Israel firm.

He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had captured.

His Good Reign

The LORD remained with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father David's earlier days and did not seek the Baals, but sought the God of his father, followed His commandments, and did not act as Israel did.

So the LORD established the kingdom in his control, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.
6 He took great pride in the ways of the LORD and again (F) removed the high places and the Asherim from Judah.

7 Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah, (G) to teach in the cities of Judah;

8 and with them (H) the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebediah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

9 They taught in Judah, having (I) the book of the law of the LORD with them; and they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

10 Now (J) the dread of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands which lay around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Some of the Philistines (K) brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks, 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

12 So Jehoshaphat grew greater and greater, and he built fortresses and store cities in Judah.

13 He had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and warriors, valiant men, in Jerusalem.

14 This consisted of their muster according to their fathers' households: of Judah, commanders of thousands, Adnah became the commander, and with him 300,000 valiant warriors;

15 and next to him we identify as Johanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

16 and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, (L) who volunteered for the LORD, and with him 200,000 valiant warriors;

17 and of Benjamin, Eliada a valiant warrior, and with him 200,000 armed with bow and shield;

18 and next to him Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 equipped for war.

19 These are they who served the king, apart from (M) those whom the king put in the fortified cities through all Judah.

Jehoshaphat Allies with Ahab

1Now (A)Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor; and he allied himself by marriage with Ahab.

2(B)Some years later he went down to visit Ahab at Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who accompanied him, and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

3Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth-gilead?" And he said to him, "I consider myself as you, and my people as your people, and we will accompany you in the battle."

4Moreover, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of the LORD."

5Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will give it into the hand of the king."

6But Jehoshaphat said, "Do we not yet have a prophet of the LORD here that we may inquire of him?"

7The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There remains yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me but always evil. He has the name of Micaiah, son of Imla." But Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

Ahab's False Prophets Assure Victory

8Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micaiah, Imla's son."

9Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they sat (C)at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall gore the Arameans until you consume them.'"

11All the prophets prophesied thus, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

Micaiah Brings Word from God

12Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets seem uniformly favorable to the king. So please let your word resemble one of them and speak favorably."

13But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, (D)what my God says, that I will speak."

14When he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" He said, "Go up and succeed, for they will fall into your hand."

15Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

16So he said,
   "I saw all Israel
    Scattered on the mountains,
    (E)Like sheep which have no shepherd;
    And the LORD said,
    'These have no master.
    Let each of them return to his house in peace.'"

17Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. (E)I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right and on His left.

19"The LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said this while another said that."
Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.' And the LORD said to him, 'How?'

He said, 'I will go and become a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said, 'You will entice him and prevail also. Go and do so.'

Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, for the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you."

Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"

Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day when you enter an inner room to hide yourself."

Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son; and say, 'Thus says the king, 'Put this man in prison and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely.'"

Micaiah said, "If you indeed return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Listen, all you people."

Ahab's Defeat and Death

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone."

So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "We see the king of Israel," and they turned aside to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

When the captains of the chariots saw that the king of Israel did not appear there, they turned back from pursuing him.
33 A certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the fight, for I have become severely wounded."

34 The battle raged that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans until the evening; and at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19

NASM E-Prime DFM

Jehu Rebukes Jehoshaphat

1 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem.

2 (A) Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "(B) Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD and (C) so bring wrath on yourself from the LORD?

3 "But I find some good in you, for (E) you have removed the Asheroth from the land and you (F) have set your heart to seek God."

4 So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem and went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and (G) brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Reforms Instituted

5 He appointed (H) judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

6 He said to the judges, "Consider what have you done, for (I) you do not judge for man but for the LORD who accompanies you when you render judgment.

7 "Now then let the fear of the LORD be upon you; have care what you do, for the LORD our God will (J) have no part in unrighteousness (K) or partiality or the taking of a bribe."

8 In Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some (L) of the Levites and priests, and some of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

9Then he charged them saying, "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.

10Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brethren who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them so that they may not have guilt before the LORD, and wrath may not come on you and your brethren. Thus you shall do and you will not have guilt.

11"Behold, Amariah the chief priest will preside over you in all that pertains to the LORD, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all that pertains to the king Also the Levites shall serve as officers before you. Act resolutely, and the LORD support the upright."

2 Chronicles 20

NASB E-Prime DFM

Judah Invaded

1Now it came about after this that the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, together with some of the Meunites, came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

2Then some came and reported to Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude comes against you from beyond the sea, out of Aram and behold, they live in Hazazon-tamar (namely Engedi)."

3Jehoshaphat feared and turned his attention to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4So Judah gathered together to seek help from the LORD; they even came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD.

Jehoshaphat's Prayer

5Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD before the new court,
6 and he said, "O LORD, the God of our fathers, do we not acknowledge You as the God in the heavens? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might reside in Your hand so that no one can stand against You.

7 "Did You not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and (H) give it to the descendants of (J) Abraham Your friend forever?

8 They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary there for Your name, saying,

9 (J) Should evil come upon us, the sword, or judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for (K) Your name we invoke in this house) and cry to You in our distress, and You will hear and deliver us.'

10 "Now behold, (L) the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, (M) whom You did not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt (they turned aside from them and did not destroy them), 11 see how they reward us by (N) coming to drive us out from Your possession which You have given us as an inheritance.

12 "O our God, (O) will You not judge them? For we feel powerless before this great multitude who come against us; nor do we know what to do, but (P) our eyes fix on You."

13 All Judah stood before the LORD, with their infants, their wives and their children.

Jahaziël Answers the Prayer

14 Then in the midst of the assembly (Q) the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziël the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite of the sons of Asaph;

15 and he said, "Listen, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat: thus says the LORD to you, (R) Do not fear or feel dismay because of this great multitude, for (S) the battle does not belong to you but to God.

16 Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel.
17 You need not fight in this battle; station yourselves, stand and see the salvation of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear or feel dismay; tomorrow go out to face them, for the LORD remains with you."

18 Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

19 The Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

Enemies Destroy Themselves

20 They rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, put your trust in the LORD your God and you will become established. Put your trust in His prophets and succeed."

21 When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised Him in holy attire, as they went out before the army and said, "Give thanks to the LORD, for His lovingkindness lasts forever."

22 When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they became routed.

23 For the sons of Ammon and Moab rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir destroying them completely; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24 When Judah came to the lookout of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude, and behold, they appeared as corpses lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found much among them, including goods, garments and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry. And they took three days taking the spoil because there seemed so much.

Triumphant Return to Jerusalem
26 Then on the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD. Therefore they have named that place "The Valley of [B] Beracah" until today.

27 Every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, (AC) for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 They came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres and trumpets to the house of the LORD.

29 And (AD) the dread of God fell on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat remained at peace, (AE) for his God gave him rest on all sides.

31 (AE) Now Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He reached thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. And his mother had the name of Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not depart from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD.

33 (AG) The high places, however, he did not remove; (AH) the people had not yet directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first to last, behold, we read them in the annals of (AI) Jehu the son of Hanani, which we see recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

Alliance Displeases God

35 (AI) After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. He acted wickedly in so doing.

36 So he allied himself with him to make ships to go (AK) to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." So the ships became broken and could not go to Tarshish.
2 Chronicles 21

NASB E-Prime DFM

Jehoram Succeeds Jehoshaphat in Judah

1(\(A\)) Then Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place.

2He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these we identify as the sons of Jehoshaphat king (\(B\)) of Israel.

3Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold and precious things, (\(C\)) with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because they acknowledged him as the firstborn.

4Now when Jehoram had taken over the kingdom of his father and made himself secure, he (\(D\)) killed all his brothers with the sword, and some of the rulers of Israel also.

5(\(E\)) Jehoram reached thirty-two years when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6(\(F\)) He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (\(G\) for Ahab's daughter had become his wife), and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

7Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David because of the covenant which He had made with David, (\(H\)) and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

Revolt against Judah

8In his days (\(I\)) Edom revolted (\(J\)) against the rule of Judah and set up a king over themselves.

9Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots with him. And he arose by night and struck down the Edomites who surrounded him and the commanders of the chariots.

10So Edom revolted (\(K\)) against Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.
Moreover, (J) he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem (K) to play the harlot and led Judah astray.

Then a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet saying, "Thus says the LORD God of your father David, 'Because (L) you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father (M) and the ways of Asa king of Judah, but (N) have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot (O) as the house of Ahab played the harlot, and you (P) have also killed your brothers, your own family, who behaved better than you, behold, the LORD will strike your people, your sons, your wives and all your possessions with a great calamity; and (Q) you will suffer severe sickness, a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the sickness, day by day.'"

Then (R) the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and (S) the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians; and they came against Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions found in the king's house together with his sons and his wives, so that no son remained with him except (T) Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

So after all this the LORD smote him (U) in his bowels with an incurable sickness.

Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels came out because of his sickness and he died in great pain. And his people made no fire for him like (V) the fire for his fathers.

He reached thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed (W) with no one's regret, and they buried him in the city of David, (X) but not in the tombs of the kings.
2 Chronicles 22

NASB E-Prime DFM

Ahaziah Succeeds Jehoram in Judah

1 (A) Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men who came with (B) the Arabs to the camp had slain all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Ahaziah reached twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother had the name of Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother served as his counselor to do wickedly.

4 He did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for they served as his counselors after the death of his father, to (C) his destruction.

Ahaziah Allies with Jehoram of Israel

5 He also walked according to their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. But the (D) Arameans wounded Joram.

6 So he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he had become sick.

7 Now (E) the destruction of Ahaziah had come from God, in that he went to Joram For when he came, (F) he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, (G) whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

Jehu Murders Princes of Judah

8 (H) It came about when Jehu executed judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah’s brothers ministering to Ahaziah, and slew them.

9 (I) He also sought Ahaziah, and they caught him while he hid in Samaria; they brought him to Jehu, put him to death (J) and buried him For they said, " We identify him as the son of Jehoshaphat, (K) who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there remained no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.

10(L) Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son had died, she rose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah.

11But Jehoshabeath the king's daughter took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who had received the death penalty, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for they identified her as the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she would not put him to death.

12He remained hidden with them in the house of God six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

NASB E-Prime DFM

Jehoiada Sets Joash on the Throne of Judah

1(A) Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, and they entered into a covenant with him.

2They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the fathers' households of (B)Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, (C) as the LORD has spoken concerning the sons of David.

4"This thing you shall do: one third of you, of the priests and Levites (D) who come in on the sabbath, shall serve as gatekeepers, 5and one third shall remain at the king's house, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall remain in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6"But let no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and (E)the ministering Levites; they may enter, for we designate them as holy. And let all the people keep the charge of the LORD.

7"The Levites will surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house, let them kill him. Thus shall it happen with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

8So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who would come in on the sabbath, with those who would go out on the sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss any of (E)the divisions.

9Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had belonged to King David, which existed in the house of God.

10He stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

11Then they brought out the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him (G)the testimony and made him king And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, "(H)Long live the king!"

Athaliah Murdered

12When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came into the house of the LORD to the people.

13She looked, and behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters stood beside the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets, the singers with their musical instruments leading the praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

14Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who received appointment over the army and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, put to death with the sword." For the priest said, "Let her not receive execution in the house of the LORD."

15So they seized her, and when she arrived at the entrance of (I)the Horse Gate of the king's house, they (I)put her to death there.

Reforms Carried Out
16 Then (K) Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they would become the LORD'S people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they broke in pieces his altars and his images, and (L) killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Moreover, Jehoiada placed the offices of the house of the LORD under the authority of (M) the Levitical priests, (N) whom David had assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as we have read in the law of Moses--(O) with rejoicing and singing according to the order of David.

19 He stationed (P) the gatekeepers of the house of the LORD, so that no one would enter who remained in any way unclean.

20 (Q) He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came through the upper gate to the king's house. And they placed the king upon the royal throne.

21 So (R) all of the people of the land rejoiced and the city had become quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

Young Joash Influenced by Jehoiada

1(A) Joash reached seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother had the name of Zibiah from Beersheba.

2(B) Joash did right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

Faithless Priests
4 Now it came about after this that Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.

5 He gathered the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God annually, and you shall do the matter quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.

6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the levy fixed by Moses the servant of the LORD on the congregation of Israel for the tent of the testimony?"

7 For the sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken into the house of God and even used the holy things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

Temple Repaired

8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 They made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the levy fixed by Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness.

10 All the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought in their levies and dropped them into the chest until they had finished.

11 It came about whenever they brought the chest into the king's officer by the Levites, and when they saw that it had much money, then the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer would come, empty the chest, take it, and return it to its place. Thus they did daily and collected much money.

12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands, and they restored the house of God according to its specifications and strengthened it.

14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and they made it into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and the burnt offering, and pans and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15Now when Jehoiada reached a ripe old age he died; he reached one hundred and thirty years old at his death.

16They buried him (L) in the city of David among the kings, because he had done well in (M) Israel and to God and His house.

17But after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them.

18They abandoned (W) the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and (Q) served the [a] Asherim and the idols; so (P) wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt.

19Yet (Q) He sent prophets to them to bring them back to the LORD; though they testified against them, they would not listen.

Joash Murders Son of Jehoiada

20(R) Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, "Thus God has said, "(S) Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD and do not prosper? (T) Because you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you."

21So (U) they conspired against him and at the command of the king they stoned him to death in the court of the house of the LORD.

22Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which his father Jehoiada had shown him, but he murdered his son. And as he died he said, "May (V) the LORD see and avenge!"

Aram Invades and Defeats Judah

23Now it happened at the turn of the year that (W) the army of the Arameans came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, destroyed all the officials of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24Indeed the army of the Arameans came with a small number of men; yet (Q) the LORD delivered a very great army into their hands, (W) because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.
25(Z) When they had departed from him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26 Now these we identify as those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

27 As to his sons and the many oracles against him and (AA) the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, we read them in the (AB) treatise of the Book of the Kings. Then Amaziah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 25

NASB E-Prime DFM

Amaziah Succeeds Joash in Judah

1(A) Amaziah reached twenty-five years when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother had the name of Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 He did right in the sight of the LORD, (B) yet not with a whole heart.

3 Now (C) it came about as soon as the kingdom became firmly in his grasp, that he killed his servants who had slain his father the king.

4 However, he did not put their children to death, but did as we read in the law in the book of Moses, which the LORD commanded, saying, "(D) Fathers shall not receive the death penalty for sons, nor sons receive the death penalty for fathers, but each shall receive the death penalty for his own sin."

Amaziah Defeats Edomites

5 Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah and appointed them according to their fathers' households under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he took a census of those (E) from twenty years old and upward and found them to number (E) 300,000 choice men, able to go to war and handle spear and shield.
6 He hired also 100,000 valiant warriors out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

7 But (g) a man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD does not accompany Israel nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

8 nBut if you do go, do it, remain strong for the battle; yet God will bring you down before the enemy, (h) for God has power to help and to bring down."

9 Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "(i) The LORD has much more to give you than this."

10 Then Amaziah dismissed them, the troops which came to him from Ephraim, to go home; so their anger burned against Judah and they returned home in fierce anger.

11 Now Amaziah strengthened himself and led his people forth, and went to (j) the Valley of Salt and struck down 10,000 of the sons of Seir.

12 The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff and threw them down from the top of the cliff, so that they all dashed to pieces.

13 But the troops whom Amaziah sent back from going with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down 3,000 of them and plundered much spoil.

Amaziah Rebuked for Idolatry

14 Now after Amaziah came from slaughtering the Edomites, (k) he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, set them up as his gods, bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

15 Then the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people (l) who have not delivered their own people from your hand?"

16 As he talked with him, the king said to him, "Have we appointed you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you become struck down?" Then the prophet stopped and said, "I know that God has planned to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."

Amaziah Defeated by Joash of Israel
17(M) Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face each other."

18Joash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "(N)The thorn bush which grew in Lebanon sent to the cedar which grew in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But there passed by a wild beast that lived in Lebanon and trampled the thorn bush.

19"You said, 'Behold, you have defeated Edom.' And (O)your heart has become proud in boasting. Now stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you, even you, would fall and Judah with you?"

20But Amaziah would not listen, for it had come from God, that He might deliver them into the hand of Joash because they had sought the gods of Edom.

21So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

22Judah suffered defeat at the hand of Israel, and they fled each to his tent.

23Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of (P)Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits.

24He took all the gold and silver and all the utensils which they found in the house of God with (Q)Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25(R) And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

26Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, behold, do we not read them in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

28Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.
2 Chronicles 26

NASB E-Prime DFM

Uzziah Succeeds Amaziah in Judah

1And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who had reached sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.

2He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

3Uzziah had reached (A)sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother had the name of Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

4He did right in the sight of the LORD according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

5(B)He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, (C)who had understanding through the vision of God; and (D)as long as he sought the LORD, God prospered him.

Uzziah Succeeds in War

6Now he went out and (E)warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the Philistines.

7(E)God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

8The Ammonites also gave (G)tribute to Uzziah, and his fame extended to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

9Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at (H)the Corner Gate and at the (I)Valley Gate and at the corner buttress and fortified them.

10He built towers in the wilderness and (J)hewed many cisterns, for he had much livestock, both in the lowland and in the plain. He also had plowmen and vinedressers in the hill country and the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

11Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which entered combat by divisions according to the number of their muster, prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's officers.

12 The total number of the heads of the households, of valiant warriors, added up to 2,600.

13 Under their direction served an elite army of 307,500, who could wage war with great power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 Moreover, Uzziah prepared for all the army shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows and sling stones.

15 In Jerusalem he made engines of war invented by skillful men to stand on the towers and on the corners for the purpose of shooting arrows and great stones. Hence his fame spread afar, for he received marvelous help until he became strong.

Pride Becomes Uzziah's Undoing

16 But when he became strong, his heart became so proud that he acted corruptly, and he proved unfaithful to the LORD his God, for he entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 Then Azariah the priest entered after him and with him eighty priests of the LORD, valiant men.

18 They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "You, Uzziah, shall not burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who have received consecration to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have proved unfaithful and will have no honor from the LORD God."

19 But Uzziah, with a censer in his hand for burning incense, became enraged; and while he became enraged with the priests, the leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense.

20 Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he became leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he himself also hastened to get out because the LORD had smitten him.

21 (S) King Uzziah remained a leper to the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, as a leper, for he became cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son presided over the king's house judging the people of the land.
22Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first to last, the prophet \( ^{(i)} \) Isaiah, the son of Amoz, has written.

23So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers \( ^{(v)} \) in the field of the grave which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He has become a leper." And Jotham his son became king in his place.

Jotham Succeeds Uzziah in Judah

1(A) Jotham reached twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother had the name of Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

2He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; \( ^{(b)} \) however he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued acting corruptly.

3He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively the wall of \( ^{(c)} \) Ophel.

4Moreover, he built \( ^{(d)} \) cities in the hill country of Judah, and he built fortresses and towers on the wooded hills.

5He fought also with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them so that the Ammonites gave him during that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand \( ^{(e)} \) kors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites also paid him this amount in the second and in the third year.

6\( ^{(e)} \) So Jotham became mighty because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

7\( ^{(e)} \) Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, even all his wars and his acts, behold, we read them in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

8He had become \( ^{(g)} \) twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 28

NASB E-Prime DFM

Ahaz Succeeds Jotham in Judah

1(Δ) Ahaz reached twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and (β) he did not do right in the sight of the LORD as David his father had done.

2(ζ) But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; he also (δ) made molten images for the Baals.

3Moreover, (ε) he burned incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom and (η) burned his sons in fire, (γ) according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel.

4He sacrificed and (η) burned incense on the high places, on the hills and under every green tree.

Judah Becomes Invaded

5Wherefore, (ν) the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram; and they defeated him and carried away from him a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus. And he fell into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted him with heavy casualties.

6For (ν) Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah 120,000 in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son and Azrikam the ruler of the house and Elkanah the second to the king.

8(κ) The sons of Israel carried away captive of (λ) their brethren 200,000 women, sons and daughters; and they took also a great deal of spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9But a prophet of the LORD lived there, who had the name of Oded; and (μ) he went out to meet the army which came to Samaria and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, became angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage (Guardar) which has even reached heaven.

10"Now you propose to (Guardar) subjugate for yourselves the people of Judah and Jerusalem for male and female slaves. Surely, do you not have transgressions of your own against the LORD your God?

11"Now therefore, listen to me and return the captives (Guardar) whom you captured from your brothers, (Guardar) for the burning anger of the LORD has become directed against you."

12Then some of the heads of the sons of Ephraim--Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai--arose against those who had come from the battle,

13and said to them, "You must not bring the captives in here, for you propose to bring upon us guilt against the LORD adding to our sins and our guilt; for our guilt has become great so that His burning anger He directs against Israel."

14So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the officers and all the assembly.

15Then (Guardar) the men who received designation by name arose, took the captives, and they clothed all their naked ones from the spoil; and they gave them clothes and sandals, fed them and (Guardar) gave them drink, anointed them with oil, led all their feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, (Guardar) the city of palm trees, to their brothers; then they returned to Samaria.

Compromise with Assyria

16(Guardar) At that time King Ahaz sent to the (Guardar) kings of Assyria for help.

17(Guardar) For again the Edomites had come and attacked Judah and carried away captives.

18(Guardar) The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, and Socoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.

19For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of (Guardar) Israel, for he had brought about a lack of restraint in Judah and proved very unfaithful to the LORD.
20So (Z)Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him.

21(AB) Although Ahaz took a portion out of the house of the LORD and out of the palace of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

22Now in the time of his distress this same King Ahaz (AB) became yet more unfaithful to the LORD.

23(AC) For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, and said, "(AD) Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they became the downfall of him and all Israel.

24Moreover, when Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God, he (AE) cut the utensils of the house of God in pieces; and he (AF) closed the doors of the house of the LORD and (AG) made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

25In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

26(AG) Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, behold, we read them in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27(AH) So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of (AI) Israel; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 29

NASB E-Prime DFM

Hezekiah Succeeds Ahaz in Judah

1(A) Hezekiah became king when he reached twenty-five years; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother had the name of Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.
2: He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

3: In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

4: He brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them into the square on the east.

Reforms Begun

5: Then he said to them, "Listen to me, O Levites. Consecrate yourselves now, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry the uncleanness out from the holy place.

6: For our fathers have proved unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him and turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have turned their backs.

7: They have also shut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

8: Therefore the wrath of the LORD became directed against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

9: For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives have gone into captivity for this.

10: Now it remains in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His burning anger may turn away from us.

11: My sons, do not show negligence now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to minister to Him, and to serve as His ministers and burn incense."

12: Then the Levites arose: Mahath, the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

13: and from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; and from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

They assembled their brothers, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the LORD, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD.

So the priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and every unclean thing which they found in the temple of the LORD they brought out to the court of the house of the LORD. Then the Levites received it to carry out to the Kidron valley.

Now they began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the porch of the LORD. Then they consecrated the house of the LORD in eight days, and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed the whole house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, and the table of showbread with all of its utensils.

Moreover, all the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness, we have prepared and consecrated; and behold, they stand before the altar of the LORD."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

Then King Hezekiah arose early and assembled the princes of the city and went up to the house of the LORD.

They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. And he ordered the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; they slaughtered the lambs also and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.
24 The priests slaughtered them and purged the altar with their blood (W) to atone for all Israel, for the king ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

25(X) He then stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps and with lyres, (Y) according to the command of David and of (Z) Gad the king’s seer, and of (AA) Nathan the prophet; for the command had come from the LORD through His prophets.

26 The Levites stood with (AB) the musical instruments of David, and (AC) the priests with the trumpets.

27 Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, (AD) the song to the LORD also began with the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel.

28 While the whole assembly worshiped, the singers also sang and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering had become finished.

29 Now at the completion of the burnt offerings, (AE) the king and all who accompanied him bowed down and worshiped.

30 Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and Asaph the seer. (AF) So they sang praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekiah said, "(AG) Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and (AH) all those who felt willing brought burnt offerings.

32 The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought consisted of 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs; all these they used for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 The consecrated things consisted of 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

34 But the priests had become too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; (AI) therefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work had become completed and until the other priests had consecrated themselves. For (AJ) the Levites felt more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests.
There seemed also (AK) many burnt offerings with (AL) the fat of the peace offerings and with (AM) the libations for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD became established again.

Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, because the thing came about suddenly.

NASB E-Prime DFM

All Israel Invited to the Passover

1Now Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

2For the king and his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem had decided (A) to celebrate the Passover in the second month, 3since they could not celebrate it (B) at that time, because the priests had not consecrated themselves in sufficient numbers, nor had the people gathered in Jerusalem.

4Thus the thing seemed right in the sight of the king and all the assembly.

5So they established a decree to circulate a proclamation throughout all Israel (C) from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as it had become prescribed.

6(D) The couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, even according to the command of the king, saying, "O sons of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that He may return to those of you who escaped and remain from (E) the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7"(F) Do not imitate your fathers and your brothers, who proved unfaithful to the LORD God of their fathers, so that (G) He made them a horror, as you see.
8"Now do not stiffen your neck like your fathers, but yield to the LORD and enter His sanctuary which He has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, that His burning anger may turn away from you.

9"For if you return to the LORD, your brothers and your sons will find compassion before those who led them captive and will return to this land. For the LORD your God shows graciousness and compassion, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

10So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11Nevertheless some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

12The hand of God fell also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

Passover Reinstated

13Now many people gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very large assembly.

14They arose and removed the altars which stood in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth of the second month And the priests and Levites became ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

16They stood at their stations after their custom, according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites.

17For many in the assembly had not consecrated themselves; therefore, the Levites presided over the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who had become unclean, in order to consecrate them to the LORD.

18For a multitude of the people, even many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than prescribed. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon 19\(^{(Y)}\) everyone who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary."

20 So the LORD heard Hezekiah and \(^{(Z)}\) healed the people.

21 The sons of Israel present in Jerusalem \(^{(AA)}\) celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day after day with loud instruments to the LORD.

22 Then Hezekiah \(^{(AB)}\) spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good insight in the things of the LORD So they ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and \(^{(AC)}\) giving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 Then the whole assembly \(^{(AD)}\) decided to celebrate the feast another seven days, so they celebrated the seven days with joy.

24 For \(^{(AE)}\) Hezekiah king of Judah had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the princes had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep; and \(^{(AF)}\) a large number of priests consecrated themselves.

25 All the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites and \(^{(AG)}\) all the assembly that came from Israel, both the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah.

26 So there arose great joy in Jerusalem, because nothing happened like this in Jerusalem \(^{(AH)}\) since the days of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

27 Then \(^{(AI)}\) the Levitical priests arose and \(^{(AJ)}\) blessed the people; and their voice God heard and their prayer came to \(^{(AK)}\) His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

Hezekiah Destroys Idols

1 Now when all this had finished, all Israel who had present itself went out to the cities of Judah, \(^{(A)}\) broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the \(^{(A)}\) Asherim and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his possession.

2And Hezekiah appointed (B) the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, (C) for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

Reforms Continued

3He also appointed (D) the king's portion of his goods for the burnt offerings, namely, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the fixed festivals, as we read in the law of the LORD.

4Also he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give (E) the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to (G) the law of the LORD.

5As soon as the order spread, the sons of Israel provided in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly (H) the tithe of all.

6The sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and (J) the tithe of sacred gifts which they had consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed them in heaps.

7In the third month they began to make the heaps, and finished them by the seventh month.

8When Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and (J) His people Israel.

9Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10Azariah the chief priest (K) of the house of Zadok said to him, "(L) Since the contributions began to be brought into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat with plenty left over, for the LORD has blessed His people, and this great quantity remains."

11Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare (M) rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.
12 They faithfully brought in the contributions and the tithes and the consecrated things; and Conaniah the Levite served as the officer in charge of them and his brother Shimei served as second.

13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jeremoth, Jozabad, Elieel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benaiah served as overseers under the authority of Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah served as the chief officer of the house of God.

14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the eastern gate, presided over the freewill offerings of God, to apportion the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

15 Under his authority served Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests, to distribute faithfully their portions to their brothers by divisions, whether great or small,

16 without regard to their genealogical enrollment, to the males from thirty years old and upward--everyone who entered the house of the LORD for his daily obligations--for their work in their duties according to their divisions;

17 as well as the priests who became enrolled genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upwards, by their duties and their divisions.

18 The genealogical enrollment included all their little children, their wives, their sons and their daughters, for the whole assembly, for they consecrated themselves faithfully in holiness.

19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests who lived in the pasture lands of their cities, or in each and every city, there lived men who received designation by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically enrolled among the Levites.

20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah; and he did good, right and true before the LORD his God.

21 Every work which he began in the service of the house of God in law and in commandment, seeking his God, he did with all his heart and prospered.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

1After these acts of faithfulness (A) Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and besieged the fortified cities, and thought to break into them for himself.

2Now when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem, 3he decided with his officers and his warriors to cut off the supply of water from the springs which lay outside the city, and they helped him.

4So many people assembled (B) and stopped up all the springs and (C) the stream which flowed through the region, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find abundant water?"

5And he took courage and (D) rebuilt all the wall that the enemies had broken down and erected towers on it, and built (E) another outside wall and strengthened the (F) Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in great number.

6He appointed military officers over the people and gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and (G) spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

7"Remain strong and courageous, do not fear or have dismay because of the king of Assyria nor because of all the horde that accompanies him; (I) for the one with us has greater power than the one with him.

8"With him he has only (J) an arm of flesh, but (K) with us we have the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Sennacherib Undermines Hezekiah

9After this (L) Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem while he besieged Lachish with all his forces with him, against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all Judah who lived at Jerusalem, saying,

10"Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what do you trust that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?
"Does not Hezekiah mislead you to give yourselves over to die by hunger and by thirst, saying, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?

Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, "You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense"?

Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Could the gods of the nations of the lands able at all to deliver their land from my hand?

Who do we know among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed who could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should have the capability to deliver you from my hand?

Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for (P)no god of any nation or kingdom could deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?"

His servants spoke further against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

He also wrote letters to insult the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "(Q)As the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand."

They called this out with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who stood on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city.

They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of (S)the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of men's hands.

God Answers Hezekiah's Prayer

But King Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every mighty warrior, commander and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in shame to his own land. And when he had entered the temple of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.
22 So the LORD (ת) saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

23 And (ע) many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and choice presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that (י) he received exaltation in the sight of all nations thereafter.

24 (ו) In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and the LORD spoke to him and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah gave no return for the benefit he received, (ך) because his heart stayed proud; (י) therefore wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

26 However, (ך) Hezekiah humbled the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 Now Hezekiah had immense riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuable articles, 28 storehouses also for the produce of grain, wine and oil, pens for all kinds of cattle and sheepfolds for the flocks.

29 He made cities for himself and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, for (הל) God had given him very great wealth.

30 It was Hezekiah who (הב) stopped the upper outlet of the waters of (הכ) Gihon and directed them to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all that he did.

31 Even in the matter of (ד) the envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of (הו) the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone only (הו) to test him, that He might know his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of devotion, behold, we read them in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (AG) honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 33

NASB E-Prime DFM

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah in Judah

1(A) Manasseh reached twelve years when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2(B) He did evil in the sight of the LORD according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

3For (C)he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; (D) he also erected altars for the Baals and made [a]Asherim, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

4(F) He built altars in the house of the LORD of which the LORD had said, "My name shall remain (F) in Jerusalem forever."

5For he built altars for all the host of heaven in (G) the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6(H) He made his sons pass through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, practiced sorcery and (I) dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

7Then he put (J) the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "(K) In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

8and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land (L) which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them according to all the law, the statutes and the ordinances given through Moses."
Thus Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

Manasseh's Idolatry Rebuked

10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

11 Therefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon.

12 When he fell into distress, he entreated the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 When he prayed to Him, He became moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom Then Manasseh acknowledged the LORD as God.

14 Now after this he built the outer wall of the city of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel with it and made it very high. Then he put army commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.

15 He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city.

16 He set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people still sacrificed in the high places, although only to the LORD their God.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh even his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they appear among the records of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also and how he had entreated God, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, we read them in the records of the Hozai.

20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And Amon his son became king in his place.
Amon Becomes King in Judah

21(Æ) Amon reached twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Manasseh his father (Æ) had done, and Amon sacrificed to all (Æ) the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

23Moreover, he did not humble himself before the LORD (AH) as his father Manasseh had done, but Amon multiplied guilt.

24Finally (AI) his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house.

25But the people of the land killed all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

NASB E-Prime DFM

Josiah Succeeds Amon in Judah

1(Â) Josiah reached eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2(B) He did right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

3For in the eighth year of his reign while still a youth, he began to (C) seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began (D) to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, the carved images and the molten images.

4They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and (E) the incense altars that stood high above them he chopped down; also the Asherim, the carved images and the molten images he broke in pieces and (F) ground to powder and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

5Then (G) he burned the bones of the priests on their altars and purged Judah and Jerusalem.
6 In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, even as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins,

7 he also tore down the altars and beat the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah Repairs the Temple

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah an official of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 They came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that they brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the doorkeepers, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 Then they gave it into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD used it to restore and repair the house.

11 They in turn gave it to the carpenters and to the builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

12 The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and the Levites, all who had skill with musical instruments.

13 They presided over the burden bearers, and supervised all the workmen from job to job; and some of the Levites served as scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

Hilkiah Discovers Lost Book of the Law

14 When they brought out the money which they had brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 Hilkiah responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.
16 Then Shaphan brought the book to the king and reported further word to the king, saying, "Everything that God entrusted to your servants they have done.

17 "They have also emptied out the money which they found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hands of the supervisors and the workmen."

18 Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

19 When the king heard  the words of the law,  he tore his clothes.

20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who remain in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book which they found; for  great grows the wrath of the LORD which He poured out on us because our fathers have not observed the word of the LORD, to do according to all that we read in this book."

Huldah, the Prophetess, Speaks

22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her regarding this.

23 She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me, 24 thus says the LORD, "Behold,  I bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all  the curses written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

25" Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath will pour out on this place and it shall not quench."

26 "But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you will say to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel regarding the words which you have heard, 27n(y) Because your heart remained tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes and wept before Me, I truly have heard you," declares the LORD.

28"Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you shall gather to your grave in peace, so your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants." And they brought back word to the king.

29(z) Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30The king went up to the house of the LORD and (AA) all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which they found in the house of the LORD.

Josiah's Good Reign

31Then the king (AB) stood in his place and (AC) made a covenant before the LORD to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant written in this book.

32Moreover, he made all who lived in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand with him. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33Josiah (AD) removed all the abominations from all the lands belonging to the sons of Israel, and made all who lived in Israel to serve the LORD their God. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 35

NASB E-Prime DFM

The Passover Observed Again

1Then Josiah (A) celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and (B) they slaughtered the Passover animals on the fourteenth day of the first month.
2 He set the priests in their offices and (C) encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

3 He also said to (D) the Levites who taught all Israel and who had become designated as holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; (E) it will become a burden on your shoulders no longer. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

4n(F) Prepare yourselves by your fathers' households in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and (G) according to the writing of his son Solomon.

5"Moreover, (H) stand in the holy place according to the sections of the fathers' households of your brethren the lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of a father's household.

6"Now (I) slaughter the Passover animals, (J) sanctify yourselves and prepare for your brethren to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

7 Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who had presented themselves, flocks of lambs and young goats, all for the Passover offerings, numbering 30,000 plus 3,000 bulls; these came from the king's possessions.

8 His officers also contributed a freewill offering to the people, the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, (K) the officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 from the flocks and 300 bulls.

9(L) Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the officers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 from the flocks and 500 bulls.

10 So the service became prepared, and (M) the priests stood at their stations and the Levites by their divisions according to the king's command.

11(N) They slaughtered the Passover animals, and while (O) the priests sprinkled the blood received from their hand, (P) the Levites skinned them.

12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the sections of the fathers' households of the lay people to present to the LORD, as we read it in the book of Moses. They did this also with the bulls.
13So they roasted the Passover animals on the fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy things in pots, in kettles, in pans, and carried them speedily to all the lay people.

14Afterwards they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

15The singers, the sons of Asaph, remained also at their stations according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers at each gate did not have to depart from their service, because the Levites their brethren prepared for them.

16So all the service of the LORD they prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD according to the command of King Josiah.

17Thus the sons of Israel who had presented themselves celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.

18They had not celebrated a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who presented themselves, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign they celebrated this Passover.

Josiah Dies in Battle

20After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt came up to make war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to engage him.

21But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What have we to do with each other, O King of Judah? I do not come against you today but against the house with which I war, and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from interfering with God who accompanies me, so that He will not destroy you."

22However, Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to make war with him; nor did he listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to make war on the plain of Megiddo.
23The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I have become badly wounded."

24So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and they buried him in the tombs of his fathers. (AC) All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25Then (AD) Jeremiah chanted a lament for Josiah. And all the male and female singers speak about Josiah in their laments to this day. And they made them an ordinance in Israel; behold, we also read them in the Lamentations.

26Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as we read in the law of the LORD, 27and his acts, first to last, behold, we read them in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

NASB E-Prime DFM

Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, then Jehoiachin Rule

1(A) Then the people of the land took aJoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

2Joahaz reached twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

4The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But (C)Neco took Joahaz his brother and brought him to Egypt.

5(D) Jehoiakim reached twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.
Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple at Babylon.

Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the abominations which he did, and what they found against him, behold, have we not read them in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

Jehoiachin reached eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

Captivity in Babylon Begun

At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD, and he made his kinsman Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Rules in Judah

Zedekiah reached twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke for the LORD.

He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

Furthermore, all the officials of the priests and the people proved very unfaithful following all the abominations of the nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place;

but they continually mocked the messengers of God, despised His words and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until no remedy could come.
17(U) Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He gave them all into his hand.

18(V) All the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officers, he brought them all to Babylon.

19(Will) They burned the house of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its fortified buildings with fire and destroyed all its valuable articles.

20(Will) Those who had escaped from the sword he (X) carried away to Babylon; and (Y) they became servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia, 21(Z) to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until (AA) the land had enjoyed its sabbaths (AB) all the days of its desolation it kept sabbath (AC) until seventy years had reached completion.

Cyrus Permits Return

22(AD) Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia--in order to fulfill the word of the LORD (AE) by the mouth of Jeremiah--the LORD (AE) stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

23"Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which stands in Judah. Whoever there lives among you of all His people, may the LORD his God remain with him, and let him go up!'"
Ezra 1-10

Rendered into E-Prime by Dr. David F. Maas

Cyrus's Proclamation

1(\(\text{A}\)) Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he (\(\text{B}\)) sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying:

2"Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and (\(\text{C}\)) He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which locates in Judah.

3Whoever lives among you of all His people, may his God dwell with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem which locates in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; we acknowledge God as dwelling in Jerusalem.

4Every survivor, at whatever place he may live, let the men of that place support him with silver and gold, with goods and cattle, together with a freewill offering for the house of God which locates in Jerusalem."

Holy Vessels Restored

5Then the heads of fathers' households of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites arose, (\(\text{E}\)) even everyone whose spirit God had stirred to go up and rebuild the house of the LORD which locates in Jerusalem.

6All those about them (\(\text{E}\)) encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with cattle and with valuables, aside from all that people gave as a freewill offering.

7(\(\text{G}\)) Also King Cyrus brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, (\(\text{H}\)) which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and put in the house of his gods;

8and Cyrus, king of Persia, had them brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he counted them out to (\(\text{I}\)) Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.
Now this constituted their number: 30 (J) gold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 duplicates;

30 gold bowls, 410 silver bowls of a second kind and 1,000 other articles.

All the articles of gold and silver numbered 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought them all up with the exiles who went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2

NASB E-Prime DFM

Number of Those Returning

1(A) Now these constitute the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city.

2These came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

3the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

4the sons of Shephatiah, 372;

5the sons of (B)Arah, 775;

6the sons of (C)Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,812;

7the sons of Elam, 1,254;

8the sons of Zattu, 945;

9the sons of Zaccai, 760;

10the sons of Bani, 642;

11the sons of Bebai, 623;

12the sons of Azgad, 1,222;

13the sons of (D)Adonikam, 666;
14 the sons of Bigvai, 2,056;
15 the sons of Adin, 454;
16 the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, 98;
17 the sons of Bezai, 323;
18 the sons of Jorah, 112;
19 the sons of Hashum, 223;
20 the sons of Gibbar, 95;
21 the men of (E)Bethlehem, 123;
22 the men of Netophah, 56;
23 the men of Anathoth, 128;
24 the sons of Azmaveth, 42;
25 the sons of Kiriat-arim, Chephirah and Beeroth, 743;
26 the sons of (E)Ramah and Geba, 621;
27 the men of Michmas, 122;
28 the men of Bethel and Ai, 223;
29 the sons of Nebo, 52;
30 the sons of Magbish, 156;
31 the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;
32 the sons of Harim, 320;
33 the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 725;
34 the men of (G)Jericho, 345;
35 the sons of Senaah, 3,630.

Priests Returning
36*The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;
37the sons of (I)Immer, 1,052;
38(I)the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;
39the sons of (K)Harim, 1,017.

Levites Returning
40The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, 74.
41The singers: the sons of Asaph, 128.
42The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all 139.
43The (L)temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbath, 44the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, 45the sons of Lebanon, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, 46the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmai, the sons of Hanan, 47the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, 48the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, 49the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, 50the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, 51the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, 52the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, 53the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, 54the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.
55The sons of (M)Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda, 56 the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Ami.
58 All the (N) temple servants and the sons of (Q) Solomon's servants were 392.
59 Now these came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan and Immer, but they could not give evidence of their fathers' households and their descendants, whether they belonged to Israel:
60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 652.

Priests Removed
61 Of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of (P) Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he became called by their name.
62 These searched among their ancestral registration, but no one could locate them; (Q) therefore people considered them considered unclean and excluded from the priesthood.
63 The governor said to them (R) that they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest stood up with (S) Urim and Thummim.
64 The whole assembly numbered 42,360, 65 besides their male and female servants who numbered 7,337; and they had 200 (T) singing men and women.
66 Their horses added up to 736; their mules, 245;
67 their camels, 435; their donkeys, 6,720.
68 Some of the heads of fathers' households, when they arrived at the house of the LORD which located in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to restore it on its foundation.
69 According to their ability they gave (U) to the treasury for the work 61,000 gold drachmas and 5,000 silver minas and 100 priestly garments.
70 (V) Now the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.
Ezra 3

NASB E-Prime DFM

Altar and Sacrifices Restored

1 Now when the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel lived in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers arose and built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings on it, as the scriptures state in the law of Moses, the man of God.

3 So they set up the altar on its foundation, for they became terrified because of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 They celebrated the Feast of Booths, as the scriptures state, and offered the fixed number of burnt offerings daily, according to the ordinance, as each day required;

5 and afterward they kept a continual burnt offering, also for the new moons and for all the fixed festivals of the LORD that the LORD consecrated, and from everyone who offered a freewill offering to the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but they had not laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD.

7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and food, drink and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the permission they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Temple Restoration Begun

8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all who came from the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and appointed the Levites from twenty years and older to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.
9 Then (H)Jeshua with his sons and brothers stood united with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah and the sons of Henadad with their sons and brothers the Levites, to oversee the workmen in the temple of God.

10 Now when the builders had (V)laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD (W)according to the directions of King David of Israel.

11(X) They sang, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying, "(Y) For we know Him as good, for His lovingkindnessHe lavishes upon Israel forever." And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because they had completed the foundation of the house of the LORD.

12 Yet many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' households, (Z) the old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy, 13 so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound people heard a long way off.

Adversaries Hinder the Work

1 Now when (A) the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that (B) the people of the exile had started to build a temple to the LORD God of Israel,

2 they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we, like you, seek your God; (C) and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of (D)Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' households of Israel said to them, "(E) You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build to the LORD God of Israel, (F) as King Cyrus, the king of Persia has commanded us."
Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them from building, and hired counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Now in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the text of the letter he had written in Aramaic and translated from Aramaic.

The Letter to King Artaxerxes

Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, as follows-- then wrote Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, namely, the Elamites, and the rest of the nations which the great and honorable Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region beyond the River. Now this represents the copy of the letter which they sent to him: "To King Artaxerxes: Your servants, the men in the region beyond the River, and now let the king know that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they rebuild the rebellious and evil city and have started to finish the walls and repairing the foundations.

Now the king know, that if they rebuild the city and finish these walls, they will not pay tribute, custom or toll, and it will damage the revenue of the kings.

Now because we serve the palace, and it does not seem fitting for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and informed the king, so that you search the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books and learn that that city has rebelled and damaged kings and provinces, and that they have incited revolt within it in past days; therefore that city had become ruined.

“We inform the king that if they rebuild that city and finish the walls finished, as a result you will have no possession in the province beyond the River.”

The King Replies and Work Stops

Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of the provinces beyond the River: "Peace. And now the document which you sent to us people have translated and read before me.

I issued a decree, and I have made a search, discovering that that city has risen up against the kings in past days, that people have perpetrated rebellion and revolt, that mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem, governing all the provinces beyond the River, and people have paid tribute, custom and toll to them.

So, now issue a decree to make these men stop work, that this city may not become rebuilt until I issue a decree.

Beware of having negligence in carrying out this matter; why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?"

Then as soon as they read the copy of King Artaxerxes' document before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their colleagues, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms.

Then work on the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and they stopped it until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Temple Work Resumed

When the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who lived in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who ruled over them, 2then (C)Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and (D)the prophets of God accompanied them supporting them.

3At that time (E)Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and spoke to them thus, "(F)Who issued you a decree to rebuild this (G)temple and to finish this structure?"

4(G)Then we told them accordingly what the names of the men who reconstructed this building.

5But (H)the eye of their God fixed on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until a report could come to Darius, and they would return a written reply concerning it.

Adversaries Write to Darius

6This constitutes the copy of the letter which (I)Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and his colleagues (J)the officials, who lived beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

7They sent a report to him which had become written thus: "To Darius the king, all peace.

8"We acknowledge to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which people build with huge stones, and lay beams in the walls; and this work they will make with great care and succeed with their hands.

9"Then we asked those elders and said to them thus, 'Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?'

10"We also asked them their names so as to inform you, and that we might write down the names of the men who headed them.

11"Thus they answered us, saying, 'We consider ourselves the servants of the God of heaven and earth and rebuild the temple that people built many years ago, (K)which a great king of Israel built and finished.

12"But (L)because our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, (M)He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.
13"However, (N)in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus (Q)issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

14"Also (P)the gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, and brought them to the temple of Babylon, these King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon and they came to one (Q)who had the name of Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

15"He said to him, "Take these utensils, go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem and let them rebuild the house of God in its place."

16"Then that Sheshbazzar came and (R)laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has remained under construction and it has not yet reached completion.'

17"Now if it pleases the king, (T)let us conduct a search in the king's treasure house, which locates there in Babylon, if it should come to pass that King Cyrus issued a to rebuild this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send to us his decision concerning this matter."

Ezra 6

NASB E-Prime DFM

Darius Finds Cyrus's Decree

1Then King Darius issued a decree, and ordered a(A)search made in the [a]archives, where kings had stored the treasures in Babylon.

2In [b]Ecbatana in the fortress, which locates (B)in the province of Media,they found a scroll and there read the following: "Memorandum--

3"(C)In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: 'Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the temple, the place where people offer sacrifices, to rebuild it and retain foundations, its height measuring 60 cubits and its width 60 cubits;

4(D)with three layers of huge stones and one layer of timbers. And let the cost come out of the royal treasury.

5"Also let (E)the gold and silver utensils of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put them in the house of God.'

6"Now therefore, (F) Tattenai, governor of the province beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai and your colleagues, the officials of the provinces beyond the River, keep away from there.

7"Leave this work on the house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

8"Moreover, (G) I issue a decree concerning what you shall do for these elders of Judah in the rebuilding of this house of God: the full cost will become paid to these people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of the provinces beyond the River, and that without delay.

9"Whatever you need both young bulls, rams, and lambs for a burnt offering to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and anointing oil, as the priests in Jerusalem request, it will come to them daily without fail, 10that they may offer (C) acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven and (H) pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11"And I issued a decree that (I) any man who violates this edict, people shall draw a timber from his house and impale him on it and make (J) his house a refuse heap on account of this.

12"May the God who (K) has caused His name to dwell there overthow any king or people who attempts to change it, so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued this decree, let people carry it out with all diligence!"

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

13Then (L) Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues carried out the decree with all diligence, just as King Darius had sent.

14And (M) the elders of the Jews proved successful in building through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo And they finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decree (N) of Cyrus, (Q) Darius, and (P) Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15This temple reached completion on the third day of the (Q) month Adar; it marked the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.
16 And the sons of Israel, the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 They offered for the dedication of this temple of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel 12 male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 Then they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Levites in their orders for the service of God in Jerusalem, as the scriptures state in the book of Moses.

The Passover Observed

19 The exiles observed the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them remained pure Then they slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, both for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 The sons of Israel who returned from exile and all those who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to join them, to seek the LORD God of Israel, ate the Passover.

22 And they observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them to encourage them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Journeys from Babylon to Jerusalem

1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, there went up Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Merioth,

4 son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,
5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest.

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he served as a scribe skilled in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all he requested because the hand of the LORD his God rested upon him.

7 Some of the sons of Israel and some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which we mark as in the seventh year of the king.

9 For on the first of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, because the good hand of his God rested upon him.

10 For Ezra had set his heart to study the law of the LORD and to practice it, and to teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

King's Decree on Behalf of Ezra

11 Now this constitutes the copy of the decree which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace. And now 13 I have issued a decree that any of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who desire to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

14 Forasmuch as the king sent you and his seven counselors inquire of you concerning Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God which you have in your hand,

15 and to bring the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, who dwells in Jerusalem,

16 with all the silver and gold which you find in the whole province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and of the priests, who offered willingly for the house of their God which dwells in Jerusalem;
17 with this money, therefore, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams and lambs, (Q) with their grain offerings and their drink offerings and (P) offer them on the altar of the house of your God which locates in Jerusalem.

18"Whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do according to the will of your God.

19"Also the utensils which you have received for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

20"The rest of the needs for the house of your God, for which you may have occasion to provide, (Q) provide for it from the royal treasury.

21"I, even I, King Artaxerxes, issue a decree to all the treasurers who live in the provinces beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, (R) the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, may require of you, you shall do it diligently, 22 even up to 100 talents of silver, 100 kors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt as needed.

23"Whatever the God of heaven commands, you shall do it with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, (S) so that no wrath will accrue against the kingdom of the king and his sons.

24"We also inform you that you will not allow anyone to impose tax, tribute or toll (U) on any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, Nethinim or servants of this house of God.

25"You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which you have in your hand, (V) appoint magistrates and judges that they may judge all the people who are in the province beyond the River, even all those who know the laws of your God; and you may (W) teach anyone who has ignorance of them.

26"(X) Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment become executed upon him strictly, whether for death or for banishment or for confiscation of goods or for imprisonment."

The King's Kindness

27Blessed do we consider the LORD, the God of our fathers, (V) who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to adorn the house of the LORD which locates in Jerusalem,
28 and (2) has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors and before all the king's mighty princes Thus I received strength according to (AA) the hand of the LORD my God upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8

NASB E-Prime DFM

People Who Went with Ezra

1 Now these constitute the heads of their fathers' households and the genealogical enrollment of those who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, (A) Hattush;

3 of the sons of Shecaniah who came from the sons of (B) Parosh, Zechariah and with him 150 males who they found in the genealogical list;

4 of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah and 200 males with him;

5 of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel and 300 males with him;

6 and of the sons of (C) Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan and 50 males with him;

7 and of the sons of Elam, Jeshuaiah the son of Athaliah and 70 males with him;

8 and of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;

9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 218 males with him;

10 and of the sons of Bani, Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

11 and of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28 males with him; and of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him; and of the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, these having the names, Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and 60 males with them; and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and 70 males with them.

Ezra Sends for Levites

Now I assembled them at the river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days; and when I observed the people and the priests, I did not find any Levites there.

So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, teachers.

I sent them to Iddo the leading man at the place Casiphia; and I told them what to say to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants at the place Casiphia, namely, to bring ministers to us for the house of our God.

According to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of insight of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, and his sons and brothers, 18 men; and Hashabiah and Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, 20 men; and 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, all of them designated by name.

Protection of God Invoked

Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a safe journey for us, our little ones, and all our possessions.

For I felt ashamed to request from the king troops and horsemen to protect us from the enemy on the way, because we had said to the king, "The hand of our God has become favorably disposed to all those who seek Him, but His power and His anger focuses against all those who forsake Him."
23 So we fasted and sought our God concerning this matter, and He listened to our entreaty.

24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers;

25 and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes and all Israel present there had offered.

26 Thus I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils worth 100 talents, and 100 gold talents, 27 and 20 gold bowls worth 1,000 darics, and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

28 Then I said to them, "You we acknowledge as holy to the LORD, and the utensils we consider holy; and the silver and the gold we acknowledge as a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leading priests, the Levites and the heads of the fathers' households of Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."

30 So the priests and the Levites accepted the weighed out silver and gold and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 Then we journeyed from the river Ahava on the twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God rested over us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the ambushes by the way.

32 Thus we came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

Treasure Placed in the Temple

33 On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils they weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him dwelled Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them the Levites accompanied, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

34 They numbered and weighed everything, recording it at that time.
The exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: (AG) 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats for a sin offering, all as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Then (AH) they delivered the king's edicts to (AI) the king's satraps and to the governors in the provinces beyond the River, and they supported the people and the house of God.

Mixed Marriages

1 Now when they had numbered these things, the princes approached me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not (A) separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, (B) according to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites.

2 For (C) they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that (D) the holy race has (E) intermingled with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hands of the princes and the rulers have contributed foremost in this unfaithfulness."

3 When I heard about this matter, I (F) tore my garment and my robe, and pulled some of the hair from my head and my beard, and (G) sat down appalled.

4 Then (H) everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me, and I sat appalled until (I) the evening offering.

Prayer of Confession

5 But at the evening offering I arose from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn, and I fell on my knees and (J) stretched out my hands to the LORD my God;
6and I said, "O my God, I feel shame and embarrassment to lift up my face to You, my God, for our iniquities have risen above our heads and our (K)guilt has grown even to the heavens.

7"(L)Since the days of our fathers to this day we have lived in great guilt, and on account of our iniquities we, our kings and our priests have fallen into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity and to plunder and to (M)open shame, as it seems this day.

8"But now for a brief moment grace has shown from the LORD our God, (N)to leave us an escaped remnant and to give us a (Q)peg in His holy place, that our God may (P)enlighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage.

9"(Q)For we acknowledge ourselves as slaves; yet in our bondage our God has not forsaken us, but (R)has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us reviving to raise up the house of our God, to restore its ruins and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

10"Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, 11which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you enter to possess you shall consider as an unclean land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from end to end and (S)with their impurity.

12'So now do not (T)give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters to your sons, and (U)never seek their peace or their prosperity, that you may remain strong and eat the good things of the land and (V)leave it as an inheritance to your sons forever.'

13"After all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and (W)our great guilt, since You our God have required us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us (X)an escaped remnant as this,

14(Y)shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who commit these abominations? (Z)Would You not have anger with us to the point of destruction, until there remains no remnant nor any who escape?

15"O LORD God of Israel, (AA)You we acknowledge as righteous, for we have found ourselves an escaped remnant, as this day; behold, we stand before You in (AB)our guilt, for (AC)no one can stand before You because of this."

Reconciliation with God

1 Now (A) while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and prostrating himself (B) before the house of God, a very large assembly, men, women and children, gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept bitterly.

2 Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, said to Ezra, "(C) We have proved unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now we have hope for Israel in spite of this.

3 "So now (D) let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and (E) their children, according to the counsel of [A] my lord and of (F) those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let us do it (G) according to the law.

4 "Arise! For this matter has become your responsibility, but we will remain with you; have courage and act."

5 Then Ezra rose and (J) made the leading priests, the Levites and all Israel, take oath that they would do according to this proposal; so they took the oath.

6 Then Ezra (J) rose from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib Although he went there, (K) he did not eat bread nor drink water, for he mourned over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

7 They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the exiles, that they should assemble at Jerusalem,

8 and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions he should forfeit and he himself will find himself excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days. It had become the ninth month on the twentieth of the month, and all the people sat in the open square before the house of God, (L) trembling because of this matter and the heavy rain.
10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have behaved unfaithfully and have married foreign wives adding to the guilt of Israel.

11 "Now therefore, (M) make confession to the LORD God of your fathers and (N) do His will; and (O) separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."

12 Then all the assembly replied with a loud voice, "That we acknowledge as correct! As you have said, so it becomes our duty to do.

13 "But there live many people; it has become the rainy season and we cannot stand in the open. Nor can we complete the task in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

14 "Let our leaders represent the whole assembly and let all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the (P) fierce anger of our God on account of this matter has turned away from us."

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

16 But the exiles did so. And Ezra the priest selected men who headed households for each of their father's households, all of them by name. So they convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

17 They finished investigating all the men who had married foreign wives by the first day of the first month.

List of Offenders

18 Among the sons of the priests who had married foreign wives consisted of the sons of (Q) Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah.

19 They pledged to put away their wives, and having admitted guilt, (R) they offered a ram of the flock for their offense.

20 Of the sons of Immer we acknowledged Hanani and Zebadiah;

21 and of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah;

22 and of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.
23 Of Levites we acknowledged Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (namely, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

24 Of the singers we acknowledged Eliashib; and of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri.

25 Of Israel, of the sons of Parosh we acknowledged Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah;

26 and of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah;

27 and of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza;

28 and of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai;

29 and of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch and Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Jeremoth;

30 and of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh;

31 and of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshiah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah;

33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei;

34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu,

38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.

Of the sons of Nebo we acknowledged Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.

All these had married foreign wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah 1-13

Rendered into E-Prime by Dr. David F. Maas

Nehemiah's Grief for the Exiles

1The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, while I lived in Susa the capitol, 2that Hanani, one of my brothers, and some men from Judah came; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped and had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3They said to me, "The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity have fallen in great distress and reproach, and the wall of Jerusalem has broken down and its gates burn with fire."

4When I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.

5I said, "I beseech You, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who preserves the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments, 6let Your ear now become attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, on behalf of the sons of Israel Your servants, confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against You; I and my father's house have sinned."

7"(Q) We have acted very corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances (R) which You commanded Your servant Moses.

8"(S) Remember the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you prove unfaithful I will scatter you among the peoples;

9"(T) but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have scattered I found in the most remote part of the heavens, I (U) will gather them from there and will bring them (V) to the place where I have chosen to cause My name to dwell.'

10"(W) They have become Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand.

11"(X) O Lord, I beseech You, (X) may Your ear become attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight to revere Your name, and make Your servant successful today and grant him compassion before this man " Now I served as the (Y) cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah's Prayer Answered

1"(A) And it came about in the month Nisan, (A) in the twentieth year of King (B) Artaxerxes, that wine stood before him, and (C) I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not looked sad in his presence.

2"(D) So the king said to me, "Why does your face appear sad though you don’t seem sick? (D) This could represent nothing but sadness of heart." Then I felt very much afraid.

3"(E) I said to the king, "(E) Let the king live forever Why should my face not appear sad (E) when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies desolate and its gates have burned in the fire?"

4"(F) Then the king said to me, "What would you request?" (G) So I prayed to the God of heaven.
I said to the king, "If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor before you, send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may rebuild it."

Then the king said to me, the queen sitting beside him, "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time.

And I said to the king, "If it please the king, let you give me letters for the governors of the provinces beyond the River, that they may allow me to pass through until I come to Judah, and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress which locates by the temple, for the wall of the city and for the house to which I will go"

And the king granted them to me because the good hand of my God rested on me.

Then I came to the governors of the provinces beyond the River and gave them the king's letters Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about it, it displeased them that someone had come to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Walls

So I came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God had put into my mind to do for Jerusalem and I had no animal with me except the animal on which I rode.

So I went out at night by the Valley Gate in the direction of the Dragon's Well and on to the Refuse Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem which had broken down and its gates had burned in the fire.

Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but I could find no place for my mount to pass.

So I went up at night by the ravine and inspected the wall. Then I entered the Valley Gate again and returned.
16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; nor had I as yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials or the rest who did the work.

17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we find ourselves in, that Jerusalem has become desolate and its gates burned by fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer seem a reproach."

18 I told them how the hand of my God had proved favorable to me and also about the king's words which he had spoken to me. Then they said, "Let us arise and build." (X) So they put their hands to the good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official, and (Y) Geshem the Arab heard it, (Z) they mocked us and despised us and said, "What thing do you do? Do you rebel against the king?"

20 So I answered them and said to them, "(AB) The God of heaven will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, (AC) but you have no portion, right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Builders of the Walls

1 Then (A) Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built (B) the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and (C) hung its doors They consecrated the wall to (D) the Tower of the Hundred and (E) the Tower of Hananel.

2 Next to him (F) the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3 Now the sons of Hassenaah built (G) the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

4 Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

5 Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.
6Joia da the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

7Next to them Melatia the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the
(1) governor of the province beyond the River.

8Next to him Uzziah the son of Harhaiah of the (1) goldsmiths made repairs
And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as (K) the Broad Wall.

9Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, (L) the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

10Next to them Jediaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

11Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and (M) the Tower of Furnaces.

12Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohash, (N) the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

13Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired (O) the Valley Gate. They built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Refuse Gate.

14Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of (P) Bethhaccherem repaired the (Q) Refuse Gate. He built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

15Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the official of the district of Mizpah, (8) repaired the Fountain Gate He built it, covered it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah at (S) the king's garden as far as (T) the steps that descend from the city of David.

16After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, (U) official of half the district of Bethazar, made repairs as far as a point opposite the tombs of David, and as far as (V) the artificial pool and the house of the mighty men.

17After him the Levites carried out repairs under Rehum the son of Bani.
Next to him Hashabiah, the official of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.
18 After him their brothers carried out repairs under Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of the other half of the district of Keilah.

19 Next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, (W) the official of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the ascent of the armory (X) at the Angle.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the Angle to the doorway of the house of (Y) Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the doorway of Eliashib's house even as far as the end of his house.

22 After him the priests, (Z) the men of the [a] valley, carried out repairs.

23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub carried out repairs in front of their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah, carried out repairs beside his house.

24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah as far as (AA) the Angle and as far as the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs in front of the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king, which stands by (AB) the court of the guard. After him Pedaijah the son of Parosh made repairs.

26 (AC) The temple servants living in (AD) Ophel made repairs as far as the front of (AE) the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower.

27 After them (AF) the Tekoites repaired another section in front of the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophel.

28 Above (AG) the Horse Gate the priests carried out repairs, each in front of his house.

29 After them Zadok the son of Immer carried out repairs in front of his house. And after him Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, carried out repairs.

30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah carried out repairs in front of his own quarters.
31After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, carried out repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room of the corner.

32Between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 4

NASB E-Prime  DFM

Sanballat Ridicules Work

1Now it came about that when Sanballat heard that we had started to rebuild the wall, he became furious and very angry and mocked the Jews.

2He spoke in the presence of his brothers and the wealthy men of Samaria and said, "What do these feeble Jews think that they have accomplished? Will they restore it for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the dusty rubble even the burned ones?"

3Now Tobiah the Ammonite lived near him and he said, "Even what they build--if a fox should jump on it, he would break their stone wall down!"

4Hear, O our God, how we feel despised! Return their reproach on their own heads and give them up for plunder in a land of captivity.

5Do not forgive their iniquity and let not their sin become blotted out before You, for they have demoralized the builders.

6So we built the wall and we joined together the whole wall to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

7Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that we began to close the breaches, they became very angry.
8All of them (H) conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause a disturbance in it.

Discouragement Overcome

9But we prayed to our God, and because of them we (J) set up a guard against them day and night.

10Thus in Judah people said,
   "The strength of the burden bearers has failed,
    Yet much rubbish abounds;
    And we ourselves feel unable
    To rebuild the wall."

11Our enemies said, "They will not know or see until we come among them, kill them and put a stop to the work."

12When the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times, "They will come up against us from every place where you may turn,"

13then I stationed men in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, the exposed places, and I (J) stationed the people in families with their swords, spears and bows.

14When I saw their fear, I rose and spoke to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people: "(K) Do not fear them; remember the Lord who we acknowledge as great and awesome, and (L) fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives and your houses."

15When our enemies heard that we knew their plan, and that (M) God had frustrated their plan, then all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work.

16From that day on, half of my servants carried on the work while half of them held the spears, the shields, the bows and the breastplates; and the captains remained behind the whole house of Judah.

17Those who rebuilt the wall and those who carried burdens took their load with one hand doing the work and the other holding a weapon.

18As for the builders, each wore his sword girded at his side as he built, while the trumpeter stood near me.
19 I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "The work seems great and extensive, and we feel separated on the wall far from one another.

20 "At whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."

21 So we carried on the work with half of them holding spears from dawn until the stars appeared.

22 At that time I also said to the people, "Let each man with his servant spend the night within Jerusalem so that they serve as a guard for us by night and a laborer by day."

23 So neither I, my brothers, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us removed our clothes, each took his weapon even to the water.

Usury Abolished

1 Now (A) there arose a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their (B) Jewish brothers.

2 For those who said, "We, our sons and our daughters have become many; therefore let us (C) get grain that we may eat and live."

3 Others said, "We have mortgaged our fields, our vineyards and our houses that we might get grain because of the famine."

4 Also some said, "We have borrowed money (D) for the king's tax on our fields and our vineyards.

5 "Now (E) our flesh resembles the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. Yet behold, (F) we have forced our sons and our daughters to become slaves, and some of our daughters have become forced into bondage already, and we feel helpless because our fields and vineyards belong to others."

6 Then I felt very (G) angry when I had heard their outcry and these words.
7I consulted with myself and contended with the nobles and the rulers and said to them, "(H)You have exacted usury, each from his brother!" Therefore, I held a great assembly against them.

8I said to them, "We according to our ability (I) have redeemed our Jewish brothers who had become sold to the nations; now would you even sell your brothers that they may become sold to us?" Then they grew silent and could not find a word to say.

9Again I said, "The thing which you do does not seem good; should you not walk in the fear of our God because of (J) the reproach of the nations, our enemies?

10"And likewise I, my brothers and my servants have lent them money and grain. Please, let us leave off this usury.

11"Please, give back to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money and of the grain, the new wine and the oil that you have extracted from them."

12Then they said, "We (K) will give it back and (L) will require nothing from them; we will do exactly as you say " So I called the priests and (M) took an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

13I (N) also shook out the front of my garment and said, "Thus may God shake out every man from his house and from his possessions who does not fulfill this promise; even thus may he become shaken out and emptied " And (O) all the assembly said, "Amen!" And they praised the LORD. Then the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah's Example

14Moreover, from the day that I received an appointment to serve as their governor in the land of Judah, from (P) the twentieth year to the (Q) thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my kinsmen have eaten the governor's food allowance.

15But the former governors who had served before me laid burdens on the people and took from them bread and wine besides forty shekels of silver; even their servants domineered the people. But I did not do so (R) because of the fear of God.

16I also [a] applied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants gathered there for the work.
Moreover, there stood at my table one hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that lived around us.

Now that which we prepared for each day consisted of one ox and six choice sheep, also birds people prepared for me; and once in ten days all sorts of wine people furnished in abundance. Yet for all this I did not demand the governor's food allowance, because the servitude fell heavy on this people.

Remember me, O my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6

NASB E-Prime DFM

The Enemy's Plot

Now when people had reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall, and that no breach remained in it, although at that time I had not set up the doors in the gates, then Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono." But they had planned to harm me.

So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I do a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

They sent messages to me four times in this manner, and I answered them in the same way.

Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same manner a fifth time with an open letter in his hand.

In it appeared the message, " we have heard reports among the nations, and Gashmu says, that you and the Jews have planned to rebel; therefore you rebuild the wall. And you shall serve as their king, according to these reports.

7"You have also appointed prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning you, 'A king reigns in Judah!' And now we will report it to the king according to these reports. So come now, let us take counsel together."

8Then I sent a message to him saying, "Such things as you say have not happened, but you invent them in your own mind."

9For all of them tried to frighten us, thinking, "They will become discouraged with the work and it will not get done." But now, (E)O God, strengthen my hands.

10When I entered the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, (E)who received confirmation at home, he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they come to kill you, and they will come to kill you at night."

11But I said, "(G)Should a man like me flee? And could one such as I go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in."

12Then I perceived that surely God had not sent him, but he uttered his prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13They hired him for this reason, (H)that I might become frightened and act accordingly and sin, so that they might have an evil report in order that they could reproach me.

14(G)Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also Noadiah (G)the prophetess and the rest of the prophets who tried to frighten me.

The Wall Reaches Completion

15So we completed (E)the wall on the twenty-fifth of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

16(L)When all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations surrounding us saw it, they lost their confidence; for (M)they recognized that this work had reached completion with the help of our God.

17Also in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.
18For many in Judah bound themselves by oath to him because they knew him as the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19Moreover, they spoke about his good deeds in my presence and reported my words to him. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Census of First Returned Exiles

1Now when (A)the wall had become rebuilt and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and appointed the Levites, 2then I put (B)Hanani my brother, and (C)Hananiah the commander of (D)the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for he proved (E)a faithful man and feared God more than many.

4Now the city grew large and spacious, but the people in it remained few and they didn’t build many houses.

5(F)Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people to become enrolled by genealogies. Then I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up first in which I found the following record:

6(G)These constitute the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city,

7who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of men of the people of Israel:

16 the sons of Bebai, 628;
17 the sons of Azgad, 2,322;
18 the sons of Adonikam, 667;
19 the sons of Bigvai, 2,067;
20 the sons of Adin, 655;
21 the sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, 98;
22 the sons of Hashum, 328;
23 the sons of Bezai, 324;
24 the sons of Hariph, 112;
25 the sons of Gibeon, 95;
26 the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188;
27 the men of Anathoth, 128;
28 the men of Beth-azmaveth, 42;
29 the men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah and Beeroth, 743;
30 the men of Ramah and Geba, 621;
31 the men of Michmas, 122;
32 the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;
33 the men of the other Nebo, 52;
34 the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;
35 the sons of Harim, 320;
36 the men of Jericho, 345;
37 the sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, 721;
38 the sons of Seraiah, 3,930.
39 The priests: the sons of Jeddaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;
40 the sons of Immer, 1,052;
41 the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;
42 the sons of Harim, 1,017.
43 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodevah, 74.
44 The singers: the sons of Asaph, 148.
45 The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmun, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, 138.
46 The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, 47 the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, 48 the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmai, 49 the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,
50 the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,
51 the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, 52 the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusheesim, 53 the sons of Bakkuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, 54 the sons of Bazzith, the sons of Mechech, the sons of Harsha,
55 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,
56 the sons of Nezikiah, the sons of Hatipha.
57 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sota, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, 58 the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 59 the sons of Shephatieh, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.
60 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants numbered 392.
61 These came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses or their descendants, whether they belonged to Israel:
62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 642.
63 Of the priests: the sons of Hobaijah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai, the Gileadite, and became named after them.
64 These searched among their ancestral registration, but they could not locate it; therefore people considered them unclean and excluded from the priesthood.
65 The governor said to them that they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim.

Total of People and Gifts

66 The whole assembly together numbered 42,360,
67 besides their male and their female servants, of whom numbered 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.
68 Their horses numbered 736; their mules, 245;
their camels, 435; their donkeys, 6,720.

Some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas, 50 basins, 530 priests' garments.

Some of the heads of fathers' households gave into the treasury of the work 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver minas.

That which the rest of the people gave numbered 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,000 silver minas and 67 priests' garments.

Now the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants and all Israel, lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel lived in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

1And all the people gathered as one man at the square which located in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.

2Then Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly of men, women and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

3He read from it before the square which was in front of the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people attended to the book of the law.

4Ezra the scribe stood at a wooden podium which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam on his left hand.

5Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people for he stood above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.
6 Then Ezra blessed the LORD the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands; then they bowed low and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, explained the law to the people while the people remained in their place.

8 They read from the book, from the law of God, translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

"This Day We Acknowledge As Holy"

9 Then Nehemiah, who served the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day the LORD your God considers holy; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said to them, "Go, eat of the fat, drink of the sweet, and send portions to him who has nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not feel grieved, for the joy of the LORD shall become your strength."

11 So the Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Remain still, for we acknowledge the day as holy; do not feel grieved."

12 All the people went away to eat, to drink, to send portions and to celebrate a great festival, because they understood the words which had become known to them.

Feast of Booths Restored

13 Then on the second day the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests and the Levites gathered before Ezra the scribe that they might gain insight into the words of the law.

14 They found written in the law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the sons of Israel should live in booths during the feast of the seventh month.

15 So they proclaimed and circulated a proclamation in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the hills, and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches and branches of other leafy trees, to make booths, as the scriptures state."
16 So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

17 The entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them. The sons of Israel had indeed not done so from the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day. And there arose great rejoicing.

18 He read from the book of the law of God daily, from the first day to the last day. And they celebrated the feast seven days, and on the eighth day they kept a solemn assembly according to the ordinance.

Nehemiah 9

NASB E-Prime DFM

The People Confess Their Sin

1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel assembled with fasting, in sackcloth and with dirt upon them.

2 The descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 While they stood in their place, they read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

4 Now on the Levites' platform stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chenani, and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah, said, "Arise, bless the LORD your God forever and ever!

   O may Your glorious name we bless
   And exalt above all blessing and praise!

6 You alone we acknowledge as the LORD

   You have made the heavens,
   The heaven of heavens with all their host,
The earth and all that exists on it,
The seas and all that lives in them
(1) You give life to all of them
And the heavenly host bows down before You.

7"We acknowledge You as the LORD God,
(K) Who chose Abram
And brought him out from (L) Ur of the Chaldees,
And (M) gave him the name Abraham.
8"You found (N) his heart faithful before You,
And made a covenant with him
To give him the land of the Canaanite,
Of the Hittite and the Amorite,
Of the Perizzite, the Jebusite and the Gergashite--
To give it to his descendants
And You (O) have fulfilled Your promise,
For You have inherent righteousness.

9"(P) You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And (Q) heard their cry by the Red Sea.
10"Then You performed (R) signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants and all the people of his land;
For You knew that (S) they acted arrogantly toward them,
And (T) made a name for Yourself as it has become this day.
11"(U) You divided the sea before them,
So they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground;
And (V) their pursuers You hurled into the depths,
Like a stone into raging waters.
12"And with a pillar of cloud (W) You led them by day,
And with a pillar of fire by night
To light for them the way
In which they should go.
13"Then (X) You came down on Mount Sinai,
And (Y) spoke with them from heaven;
You gave them (Z) just ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.
14"So You made known to them (AA) Your holy sabbath,
And laid down for them commandments, statutes and law,
Through Your servant Moses.
15"You (AB) provided bread from heaven for them for their hunger,
You (AC) brought forth water from a rock for them for their thirst,
And You (AD) told them to enter in order to possess
The land which You swore to give them.
16"But they, our fathers, (AE) acted arrogantly;
They (AF) became stubborn and would not listen to Your commandments.
17 "They refused to listen,
   And (AG) did not remember Your wondrous deeds which You had performed among them;
   So they became stubborn and (AH) appointed a leader to return to their slavery in Egypt
   But we acknowledge You as a God (A1) of forgiveness,
   Gracious and compassionate,
   Slow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness;
   And You did not forsake them.

18 "Even when they (A1) made for themselves
   A calf of molten metal
   And said, 'This you will acknowledge as your God
   Who brought you up from Egypt,'
   And committed great [B] blasphemies,

19 (AS) You, in Your great compassion,
   Did not forsake them in the wilderness;
   (AL) The pillar of cloud did not leave them by day,
   To guide them on their way,
   Nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way in which they would go.

20 (AM) You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them,
   Your manna You did not withhold from their mouth,
   And You gave them water for their thirst.

21 "Indeed, (AN) forty years You provided for them in the wilderness and they did not want;
   Their clothes did not wear out, nor did their feet swell.

22 "You also gave them kingdoms and peoples,
   And allotted them to them as a boundary.
   (AG) They took possession of the land of Sihon the king of Heshbon
   And the land of Og the king of Bashan.

23 "You made their sons numerous as (AP) the stars of heaven,
   And You brought them into the land
   Which You had told their fathers to enter and possess.

24 (AQ) So their sons entered and possessed the land
   And (AR) You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites,
   And You gave them into their hand, with their kings and the peoples of the land,
   To do with them as they desired.

25 (AS) They captured fortified cities and a (AT) fertile land
   They took possession of (AU) houses full of every good thing,
   Hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves,
   Fruit trees in abundance
   So they ate, became filled and (AV) grew fat,
And (AW) revealed in Your great goodness.

26"(AX) But they became disobedient and rebelled against You, and (AY) cast Your law behind their backs. And (AZ) killed Your prophets who had (BA) admonished them, so that they might return to You, and (BB) they committed great [C] blasphemies.

27"(BC) Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their oppressors who oppressed them,

But when they cried to You (BD) in the time of their distress, You heard from heaven, and according to Your great compassion You (BE) gave them deliverers who delivered them from the hand of their oppressors.

28"(BF) But as soon as they had rest, they did evil again before You; Therefore You abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them.

When they cried again to You, You heard from heaven, and (BG) many times You rescued them according to Your compassion, 29"(BH) admonished them in order to turn them back to Your law. Yet (BI) they acted arrogantly and did not listen to Your commandments but sinned against Your ordinances,

By (BJ) which if a man observes them he shall live And they (BK) turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen.

30"(BL) However, You bore with them for many years, and (BM) admonished them by (BN) Your Spirit through Your prophets, Yet they would not give ear.

Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

31"Nevertheless, in Your great compassion You (BO) did not make an end of them or forsake them,

For we acknowledge You as (BP) a gracious and compassionate God.

32"Now therefore, our God, (BQ) the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness,

Do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before You,

Which has come upon us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people,

(BR) From the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.

33"However, (BS) You remain just in all that has come upon us;

For You have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.

34"For our kings, our leaders, our priests and our fathers have not kept Your law

Or paid attention to Your commandments and Your admonitions with which You have admonished them.

35"But (BT) they, in their own kingdom,

(BU) With Your great goodness which You gave them,
With the broad and rich land which You set before them,
Did not serve You or turn from their evil deeds.

36"Behold, (RV) we have become slaves today,
And as to the land which You gave to our fathers to eat of its fruit and its bounty,
Behold, we have become slaves in it.

37"(BW) Its abundant produce appears fit for the kings
Whom You have set over us because of our sins;
They also rule over our bodies
And over our cattle as they please,
So we feel in great distress.

A Covenant Results

38"Now because of all this
(RV) We make an agreement in writing;
And on the (RV) sealed document we have included the names of our leaders, our Levites and our priests. “

4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These constituted the priests.

9And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

10also their brothers Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

12Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

13Hodia, Bani, Beninu.

14The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Obligations of the Document

28Now (B) the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants and (C) all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all those who had knowledge and understanding,

29 are joining with their kinsmen, their nobles, and have taken on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's law, which they received through Moses, God's servant, and to keep and to observe all the commandments of GOD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes;

30 and (E) that we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.

31 As (E) for the peoples of the land who bring wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the sabbath or a holy day; and we will forego the crops the (G) seventh year and the (H) exaction of every debt.

32 We also placed ourselves under obligation to contribute yearly (I) one third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

33 for the (J) showbread, for the continual grain offering, for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moon, for the appointed times, for the holy things and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

34 Likewise (K) we cast lots (L) for the supply of wood among the priests, the Levites and the people so that they might bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' households, at fixed times annually, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it appears written in the law;

35 and that they might bring the first fruits of our ground and (M) the first fruits of all the fruit of every tree to the house of the LORD annually, 36 and (N) bring to the house of our God the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks as we see written in the law, for the priests who minister in the house of our God.

37 (O) We will also bring the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the oil (P) to the priests at the chambers of the house of our God, and the (Q) tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites receive the tithes in all the rural towns.
38(א) The priest, the son of Aaron, shall dwell with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers of (ב) the storehouse.

39 For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the (ג) contribution of the grain, the new wine and the oil to the chambers; there we find the utensils of the sanctuary, the priests who minister, the gatekeepers and the singers Thus (ד) we will not neglect the house of our God.

Time Passes; Heads of Provinces

1 Now (א) the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, but the rest of the people (ב) cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem, (ג) the holy city, while nine-tenths remained in the other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men who (ד) volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

3 (ה) Now these represent the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah (ו) each lived on his own property in their cities--the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the (ג) temple servants and the (ד) descendants of Solomon's servants.

4 Some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozezah, the son of Hazahiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

6 All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were 468 able men.
7Now these we name as the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah;

8and after him Gabbai and Sallai, 928.

9Joel the son of Zichri became their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah served as second in command of the city.

10From the priests: Jedediah the son of Jojari, Jachin,

11Seraiah the son of Hilkiel, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God,

12and their [a]kinsmen who performed the work of the temple, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, 13and his kinsmen, heads of fathers' households, 242; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14and their brothers, valiant warriors, 128. And Zabdiel, the son of Haggedolim, served as their overseer.

15Now from the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God;

17and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who serves as the leader in beginning the thanksgiving at prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18All the Levites in the holy city numbered 284.

19Also the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon and their brethren who kept watch at the gates, numbered 172.

Outside Jerusalem

20The rest of Israel, of the priests and of the Levites, dwelled in all the cities of Judah, each on his own inheritance.
21. But (L) the temple servants lived in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa had charge of the temple servants.

22. Now Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph, who performed as the singers for the service of the house of God became the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem.

23. (N) For a commandment came to them from the king concerning them and a firm regulation for the song leaders (O) day by day.

24. Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons (P) of Zerah the son of Judah, was the (Q) king's representative in all matters concerning the people.

25. Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived in (R) Kiriath-arba and its [b] towns, in (S) Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

26. and in Jeshua, in Moladah and Beth-pelet,

27. and in Hazar-shual, in Beersheba and its towns,

28. and in Ziklag, in Meconah and in its towns,

29. and in En-irimmon, in Zorah and in Jarmuth,

30. Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba as far as the valley of Hinnom.

31. The sons of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aija, at Bethel and its towns,

32. at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

33. Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34. Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

35. Lod and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

36. From the Levites, some divisions in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

Priests and Levites Who Returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel

1Now these represent (A)the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

5Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6Shemaiah and Joiarib, Jedaijah,

7Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaijah. These constituted the heads of the priests and their kinsmen in the days of Jeshua.

8The Levites we identify as Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who had charge of the songs of thanksgiving, he and his brothers.

9Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them (B)in their service divisions.

10Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, and Joiakim became the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the father of Joiada, 11and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua.

12Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of fathers' households we identify: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14of Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

The Chief Levites

As for the Levites, the heads of fathers' households became registered in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan and Jaddua; so did the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian.

The sons of Levi, the heads of fathers' households, registered in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

The heads of the Levites consisted of Hashabiah, Sherebiah and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers opposite them, to praise and give thanks, as prescribed by David the man of God, division corresponding to division.

Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub served as gatekeepers keeping watch at the storehouses of the gates.

These served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

Dedication of the Wall

Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem so that they might celebrate the dedication with gladness, with hymns of thanksgiving and with songs to the accompaniment of cymbals, harps and lyres.

So the sons of the singers assembled from the district around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites, from Beth-gilgal and from their fields in Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem.

30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Procedures for the Temple

31 Then I had the leaders of Judah come up on top of the wall, and I appointed two great choirs, the first proceeding to the right on top of the wall toward the Refuse Gate.

32 Hoshiaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them,

33 with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

35 and some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; and Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, 36 and his kinsmen, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went before them.

37 At the Fountain Gate they went directly up the steps of the city of David by the stairway of the wall above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

38 The second choir proceeded to the left, while I followed them with half of the people on the wall, above the Tower of Furnaces, to the Broad Wall, 39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, by the Old Gate, by the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

40 Then the two choirs took their stand in the house of God. So did I and half of the officials with me;

41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Eioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah, with the trumpets;

42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. And the singers sang, with Jezrahiah their leader, 43 and on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy, even the women and children rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem arose from afar.

44 On that day men also receive appointment over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.

45 For they performed the worship of their God and the service of purification, together with the singers and the gatekeepers in accordance with the command of David and of his son Solomon.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, there appeared leaders of the singers, songs of praise and hymns of thanksgiving to God.

47 So all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the portions due the singers and the gatekeepers as each day required, and set apart the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13

NASB E-Prime DFM

Foreigners Excluded

1 On that day they read aloud from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and they could find written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God,

2 because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 So when they heard the law, they excluded all foreigners from Israel.

Tobiah Expelled and the Temple Cleansed

4 Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, who had received appointment over the chambers of the house of our God, having kinship to Tobiah,
5 had prepared a large room for him, where formerly they put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils and the tithes of grain, wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, the singers and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

6 But during all this time I lived not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had gone to the king. After some time, however, I asked leave from the king, 7 and I came to Jerusalem and learned about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, by preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.

8 It felt very displeasing to me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.

9 Then I gave an order and they cleansed the rooms; and I returned there the utensils of the house of God with the grain offerings and the frankincense.

Tithes Restored

10 I also discovered that the portions of the Levites had not reached them, so that the Levites and the singers who performed the service had gone away, each to his own field.

11 So I reprimanded the officials and said, "Why have you forsaken the house of God?" Then I gathered them together and restored them to their posts.

12 All Judah then brought the tithe of the grain, wine and oil into the storehouses.

13 In charge of the storehouses I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and in addition to them we acknowledge Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they had a reliable reputation, and it became their task to distribute to their kinsmen.

14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my loyal deeds which I have performed for the house of my God and its services.

Sabbath Restored

15 In those days I saw in Judah some who were treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sacks of grain and loading them on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs and all kinds of loads, and they brought them into Jerusalem on the sabbath day So (X)I admonished them on the day they sold food.

16 Also men of Tyre lived there who imported fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold them to the sons of Judah on the sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

17 Then (Y)I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What evil thing have you done, by profaning the sabbath day?

18n(2) Did not your fathers do the same, so that our God brought on us and on this city all this trouble? Yet you add to the wrath on Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19(AA) It came about that just as it grew dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors they should close the doors and that they should not open them until after the sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates so that no load would enter on the sabbath day.

20 Once or twice the traders and merchants of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

21 Then (AB)I warned them and said to them, "Why do you spend the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will use force against you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that (AC) they should purify themselves and come as gatekeepers to sanctify the sabbath day For this also (AD) remember me, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness.

Mixed Marriages Forbidden

23 In those days I also saw that the Jews had (AE) married women from (AF) Ashdod, (AG) Ammon and Moab.

24 As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them could speak the language of Judah, but the language of his own people.

25 So (AH)I contended with them and cursed them and (AI) struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and (AJ) made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take of their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.
26n(\textbf{AK}) Did not Solomon king of Israel sin regarding these things? (\textbf{AL}) Yet among the many nations there lived no king like him, and his God loved him, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless the foreign women caused even him to sin.

27"Do we then hear about you that you have committed all this great evil (\textbf{AN}) by acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?"

28Even one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, became a son-in-law of (\textbf{AQ}) Sanballat the Horonite, so I drove him away from me.

29(\textbf{AP}) Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the (\textbf{AQ}) covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

30(\textbf{AR}) Thus I purified them from everything foreign and appointed duties for the priests and the Levites, each in his task, 31and I arranged (\textbf{AS}) for the supply of wood at appointed times and for the first fruits (\textbf{AT}) Remember me, O my God, for good.

\textbf{The Banquets of the King}

\textbf{1} Now it took place in the days of (\textbf{A}) Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned (\textbf{B}) from India to Ethiopia over (\textbf{C}) 127 provinces,

\textbf{2} in those days as King Ahasuerus (\textbf{D}) sat on his royal throne which located at the citadel in (\textbf{E}) Susa, \textbf{3} in the third year of his reign (\textbf{F}) he gave a banquet for all his princes and attendants, the army officers of Persia and Media, the nobles and the princes of his provinces being in his presence.

\textbf{4} And he displayed the riches of his royal glory and the splendor of his great majesty for many days, 180 days.
5 When these days had come to completion, the king gave a banquet lasting seven days for all the people who had gathered at the citadel in Susa, from the greatest to the least, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

6 They displayed hangings of fine white and violet linen held by cords of fine purple linen on silver rings and marble columns, and couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and precious stones.

7 They served drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, and the royal wine flowed plenteously according to the king's bounty.

8 The drinking took place according to the law, there seemed no compulsion, for so the king had given orders to each official of his household that he should do according to the desires of each person.

9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Queen Vashti's Refusal

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king grew merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, 11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king with her royal crown in order to display her beauty to the people and the princes, for she had much beauty.

12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry and his wrath burned within him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times--for it was the custom of the king so to speak before all who knew law and justice

14 and were close to him: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and sat in the first place in the kingdom--

15 "According to law, what should happen to Queen Vashti, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the eunuchs?"

16 In the presence of the king and the princes, Memucan said, " Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the princes and all the peoples who live in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.
17"For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women causing them to look with contempt on their husbands by saying, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in to his presence, but she did not come.'

18"This day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's conduct will speak in the same way to all the king's princes, and there will develop plenty of contempt and anger.

19"If it pleases the king, let him issue a royal edict and let him write it in the laws of Persia and Media so that no one can repeal it, that Vashti may no longer come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to another who proves more worthy than she.

20"When the king's edict which he will make becomes heard throughout all his kingdom, great as it will become, then all women will give honor to their husbands, great and small."

21This word pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memucan proposed.

22So he sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province according to its script and to every people according to their language, that every man should assert himself the master in his own house and the one who speaks in the language of his own people.

Vashti's Successor Sought

1After these things, when the anger of King Ahasuerus had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed against her.

2Then the king's attendants, who served him, said, "Let us seek beautiful young virgins for the king.

3"Let the king appoint overseers in all the provinces of his kingdom that they may gather every beautiful young virgin to the citadel of Susa, to the harem, into the custody of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who has charge of the women; and let their cosmetics be given them.
"Then let the young lady who pleases the king become queen in place of Vashti." And the matter pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

Now there lived at the citadel in Susa a Jew who had the name of Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, who had gone into exile from Jerusalem with the captives who had suffered exile with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled.

He brought up Hadassah, namely Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had no father or mother. Now the young lady had much beauty of form and face, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

Esther Finds Favor

So it came about when the command and decree of the king became known and many young ladies gathered to the citadel of Susa into the custody of Hegai, that Esther received a summons to the king's palace into the custody of Hegai, who had charge of the women.

Now the young lady pleased him and found favor with him. So he quickly provided her with her cosmetics and food, gave her seven choice maids from the king's palace and transferred her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

Esther did not make known her people or her kindred, for Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make them known.

Every day Mordecai walked back and forth in front of the court of the harem to learn how Esther fared.

Now when the turn of each young lady came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women--for the days of their beautification reached completion as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and the cosmetics for women-- the young lady would go in to the king in this way: anything that she desired she could have her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

In the evening she would go in and in the morning she would return to the second harem, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch had charge of the concubines. She would not again go in to the king unless the king delighted in her and summoned her by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, came to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what Hegai, the king's eunuch who had charge of the women, advised. And Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.

16 So Esther received a summons from King Ahasuerus to his royal palace in the tenth month which we mark as the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther Becomes Queen

17 The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the virgins, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his princes and his servants; he also made a holiday for the provinces and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

19 When the virgins gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat at the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet made known her kindred or her people, even as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther did what Mordecai told her as she had done when under his care.

Mordecai Saves the King

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's officials from those who guarded the door, became angry and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

22 But the plot became known to Mordecai and he told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.

23 Now when the officials investigated the plot and found them guilty, the officials hanged them both on a gallows; and it appeared in the Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence.

Haman's Plot against the Jews

1 After these events King Ahasuerus (A) promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha (B) the Agagite, and (C) advanced him and established his authority over all the princes who accompanied him.

2 All the king's servants who assembled at the king's gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman; for so the king had commanded concerning him. But (D) Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage.

3 Then the king's servants who assembled at (E) the king's gate said to Mordecai, "(F) Why do you transgress the king's command?"

4 Now when they had spoken daily to him and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he had Jewish lineage.

5 When Haman saw that (G) Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage to him, Haman filled with rage.

6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him who the people of Mordecai consisted of; therefore Haman (H) sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who lived throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

7 In the first month, which we mark as the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Pur, namely the lot, became (I) cast before Haman from day to day and from month to month, until the twelfth month, namely (J) the month Adar.

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There lives a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; (K) their laws differ from those of all other people and they do not observe the king's laws, so it does not prove in the king's interest to let them remain.

9 "If it pleases the king, let him decree that they receive the death penalty, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry on the king's business, to put into the king's treasuries."
Then the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agite, the enemy of the Jews.

The king said to Haman, "The silver belongs to you, and the people also, to do with them as you please."

Then the king's scribes received a summons on the thirteenth day of the first month, and the scribes wrote just as Haman commanded to the king's satraps, to the governors who ruled over each province and to the princes of each people, each province according to its script, each people according to its language, having appeared as written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.

Letters travelled by couriers to all the king's provinces to destroy, to kill and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which we mark as the month Adar, and to seize their possessions as plunder.

A copy of the issued edict as law in every province became published to all the peoples so that they should become ready for this day.

The couriers went out impelled by the king's command while the king issued a decree at the citadel in Susa; and while the king and Haman sat down to drink, the city of Susa tumbled into confusion.

Esther 4

NASB E-Prime DFM

Esther Learns of Haman's Plot

When Mordecai learned all that had taken place, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city and wailed loudly and bitterly.

He went as far as the king's gate, for no one could enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

In each and every province where the command and decree of the king came, there grew mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing; and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

Then Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her, and the queen writhed in great anguish. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai that he might remove his sackcloth from him, but he did not accept them.
5 Then Esther summoned Hathach from the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what and why this had taken place.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai to the city square in front of the king's gate.

7 Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews.

8 He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict which had the king issued in Susa for their destruction, that he might show Esther and inform her, and to order her to go in to the king to implore his favor and to plead with him for her people.

9 Hathach came back and related Mordecai's words to Esther.

10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and ordered him to reply to Mordecai:

11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who comes to the king to the inner court who he does not summoned, he has but one law, that he receive the death penalty, unless the king holds out to him the golden scepter so that he may live. And I have not received a summons to come to the king for these thirty days."

12 They related Esther's words to Mordecai.

13 Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, "Do not imagine that you in the king's palace can escape any more than all the Jews.

14 "For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place and you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this?"

Esther Plans to Intercede

15 Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

16 "Go, assemble all the Jews who live in Susa, and fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maidens also will fast in the same way. And thus I will go in to the king, which does not square with the law; and if I perish, I perish."
17 So Mordecai went away and did just as Esther had commanded him.

Esther Plans a Banquet

1 Now it came about (A) on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood (B) in the inner court of the king's palace in front of the king's rooms, and the king sat on his royal throne in the throne room, opposite the entrance to the palace.

2 When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, (C) she obtained favor in his sight; and (D) the king extended to Esther the golden scepter which he held in his hand. So Esther came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her, "What troubles you, Queen Esther? And what do you request? (E) Even to half of the kingdom I shall give it to you."

4 Esther said, "If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "(F) Bring Haman quickly that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

6 As they drank their wine at the banquet, (G) the king said to Esther, "(H) What do you request, for I shall grant it to you. And what do you request? Even to half of the kingdom I shall give you."

7 So Esther replied, "My petition and my request consists of the following:

8 (I) If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and do what I request, may the king and Haman come to (J) the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king says."
Haman’s Pride

9 Then Haman went out that day glad and pleased of heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai (K) in the king’s gate and (L) that he did not stand up or tremble before him, Haman filled with anger against Mordecai.

10 Haman controlled himself, however, went to his house and sent for his friends and his wife (M) Zeresh.

11 Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the (N) number of his sons, and every instance where the king had magnified him and how he had (O) promoted him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman also said, "Even Esther the queen let no one but me come with the king to the banquet which she had prepared; and (P) tomorrow also I have received her invitation to dine with the king.

13 "Yet all of this does not satisfy me every time I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at (Q) the king's gate."

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "(R) Have a gallows fifty cubits high made and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go joyfully with the king to the banquet." And the advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

The King Plans to Honor Mordecai

1 During that night the king (A) could not sleep so he gave an order to bring (B) the book of records, the chronicles, and the scribes read them before the king.

2 Someone read what (C) Mordecai had reported concerning Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who served as doorkeepers, that they had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

3 The king said, "What honor or dignity has Mordecai received for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, " We have done nothing for him."

4 So the king said, "Who has come into the court?" Now Haman had just (D) entered the outer court of the king's palace in order to speak to the king about (E) hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him.
5The king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman stands in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

6So Haman came in and the king said to him, "What should I do for the man whom the king desires to honor?" And Haman said to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?"

7Then Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king desires to honor,

8let them bring a royal robe which the king has worn, and the horse on which the king has ridden, and on whose head has placed a royal crown;

9and let him hand the robe and the horse over to one of the king's most noble princes and let them array the man whom the king desires to honor and lead him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus it shall happen to the man whom the king desires to honor.'"

Haman Must Honor Mordecai

10Then the king said to Haman, "Take quickly the robes and the horse as you have said, and do so for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate; do not fall short in anything of all that you have said."

11So Haman took the robe and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus it shall happen to the man whom the king desires to honor."

12Then Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried home, mourning, with his head covered.

13Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, has Jewish roots, you will not overcome him, but will surely fall before him."

14While they still talked with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hastily brought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Esther's Plea

1 Now the king and Haman came to drink wine with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said to Esther on the second day also as they drank their wine at the banquet, "(A) What do you request, Queen Esther? I shall grant it to you And what do you request? (B) Even to half of the kingdom I shall give you."

3 Then Queen Esther replied, "(C) If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let you give me my life me as my petition, and my people as my request;

4 for (D) we have become sold, I and my people will suffer destruction, (B) to become killed and to suffer annihilation. Now if people had only sold us as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, for the trouble would not compare with the annoyance to the king."

5 Then King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, "Who do you mean, and where do we find someone who would presume to do thus?"

6 Esther said, "(D) A foe and an enemy I identify as this wicked Haman!" Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

They Hang Haman

7 The king arose (G) in his anger from drinking wine and went into (H) the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that the king had determined against him.

8 Now when the king returned from the palace garden into the place where they drank wine, Haman fell on (I) the couch where Esther sat. Then the king said, "Will he even assault the queen with me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who served before the king said, "Behold indeed, (J) the gallows stand at Haman's house fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai (K) who spoke good on behalf of the king!" And the king said, "Hang him on it."
So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai, and the king's anger subsided.

Esther 8

NASB E-Prime DFM

Mordecai Promoted

On that day King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Queen Esther; and Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had disclosed his relationship to her.

The king took off his signet ring which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Then Esther spoke again to the king, fell at his feet, wept and implored him to avert the evil scheme of Haman the Agagite and his plot which he had devised against the Jews.

The king extended the golden scepter to Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king.

Then she said, "If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him and the matter seems proper to the king and I have pleased him in his sight, let the scribes write to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who live in all the king's provinces.

"For how can I endure to see the calamity which will befall my people, and how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

So King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and him they have hanged on the gallows because he had stretched out his hands against the Jews.

The King's Decree Avenges the Jews

"Now you write to the Jews as you see fit, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for a decree which you write in the name of the king and sealed with the king's signet ring may not become revoked."
So the king's scribes received a calling at that time in the third month (namely, the month Sivan), on the twenty-third day; and the scribes wrote according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, the satraps, the governors and the princes of the provinces which extended (L) from India to Ethiopia, 127 provinces, to (M) every province according to its script, and to every people according to their language as well as to the Jews according to their script and their language.

He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on (N) horses, riding on steeds sired by the royal stud.

In them the king granted the Jews who lived in each and every city the right (O) to assemble and to defend their lives, (P) to destroy, to kill and to annihilate the entire army of any people or province which might attack them, including children and women, and (Q) to plunder their spoil, on (R) one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (namely, the month Adar).

A copy of the edict you will issue as law in each and every province had become published to all the peoples, so that the Jews would show readiness for this day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

The couriers, hastened and impelled by the king's command, went out, riding on the royal steeds; and the decree the king gave out at the citadel in Susa.

Then Mordecai went out from the presence of the king (T) in royal robes of blue and white, with a large crown of gold and (U) a garment of fine linen and purple; and (V) the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

For the Jews there became (W) light and gladness and joy and honor.

In each and every province and in each and every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree arrived, there came gladness and joy for the Jews, a feast and a (X) holiday And (Y) many among the peoples of the land became Jews, for the dread of the Jews had fallen on them.
Esther 9

NASB  E-Prime DFM

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

1Now (A)in the twelfth month (namely, the month Adar), on (B)the thirteenth day (C)when the king's command and edict nearly became executed, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain the mastery over them, it turned to the contrary so that the Jews themselves gained the mastery over those who hated them.

2(D)The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm; and no one could stand before them, (E)for the dread of them had fallen on all the peoples.

3Even all the princes of the provinces, (F)the satraps, the governors and those who did the king's business assisted the Jews, because the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them.

4Indeed, Mordecai became great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai (G)became greater and greater.

5Thus (H)the Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying; and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

6At the citadel in Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men,

7and Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9Parsmshta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha,

10(J)the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy; but (J)they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

11On that day they reported to the king the number of those who they killed at the citadel in Susa.

12The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman at the citadel in Susa. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! (K)Now what do you request? I shall grant it to you. And what do you further request? I shall also do this for you."

13Then said Esther, "If it pleases the king, [L] let tomorrow also become granted to the Jews who live in Susa to do according to the edict of today; and let Haman's ten sons become hanged on the gallows."

14So the king commanded that it should happen; and he issued an edict in Susa, and ordered the execution of Haman's ten sons by hanging.

15The Jews who lived in Susa assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and killed [M] three hundred men in Susa, but [N] they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

16Now [O] the rest of the Jews who lived in the king's provinces [P] assembled, to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies, and kill 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

17This happened on [Q] the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and [R] on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

18But the Jews who lived in Susa [S] assembled on the thirteenth and [T] the fourteenth of the same month, and they rested on the fifteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

19Therefore the Jews of the rural areas, who live in [U] the rural towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a [V] holiday for rejoicing and feasting and [W] sending portions of food to one another.

The Feast of Purim Instituted

20Then Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who lived in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

21obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same month, annually, 22because on those days the Jews rid themselves of their enemies, and it became a month which [X] turned them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and rejoicing and [Y] sending portions of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

23Thus the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.
24 For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur, namely the lot, to disturb them and destroy them.

25 But when it came to the king's attention, he commanded by letter that his wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head and that he and his sons should suffer execution by hanging on the gallows.

26 Therefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. And because of the instructions in this letter, both what they had seen in this regard and what had happened to them, 27 the Jews established and made a custom for themselves and for all those who allied themselves with them, so that they would not fail to celebrate these two days according to their regulation and according to their appointed time annually.

28 So these days they purposed to remember and celebrate throughout every generation, every family, every province and every city; and these days of Purim would remain in perpetuity from among the Jews, or their memory fade from their descendants.

29 Then Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

30 He sent letters to all the Jews, to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, namely, words of peace and truth, 31 to establish these days of Purim at their appointed times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had established for them, and just as they had established for themselves and for their descendants with instructions for their times of fasting and their lamentations.

32 The command of Esther established these customs for Purim, and scribes wrote it in the book.

Mordecai’s Greatness

1 Now King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land and on the (A) coastlands of the sea.

2 And all the accomplishments of his authority and strength, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai (B) to which the king advanced him, have scribes not written them in (C) the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew became (D) second only to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and in favor with his many kinsmen, (E) one who sought the good of his people and one who spoke for the welfare of his whole nation.
